God Gave US Donald Trump !!!

Trump was sent from God as the people's answer to deep anti-establishment anger and discontent and as a beacon for goodness.

"Millions of Americans," declared Dallas megachurch pastor Robert Jeffries in 2017, "believe the election of President Trump represented God giving us another chance—perhaps our last chance—to truly make America great again. Our job was to elect him once God showed us the way. We thank Our Lord to this day that we did.

Donald Trump got elected because someone whispered in the individual ears of millions of Americans. The voice said that together in this election, we could make a difference, and Donald Trump would be that difference. The people trusted this self-made Billionaire to do what was best for America and not the bidding of slimy politicians or political donors and hacks. Donald Trump was the only candidate for president who offered Americans a breath of fresh air from the stodgy, bossy, establishment elites in both the Democratic and Republican Parties. Trump defied the status quo of rich donors controlling the government for their personal benefit. Donald Trump to many, including myself is a great gift from God himself.

Donald J. Trump loves America and American traditional values. Just look at the goodness that he instilled into his own children. He is not a liberal fool or a progressive socialist tool who hates America. He is simply for America and Americans First. So are you and I if we think about it for a while.

The corrupt anti-American mainstream press still does not like Trump because he represents normal God-loving and God-fearing Americans and not the fringe sectors of the country. They hate him. He calls them out as the fakes they are. They hate him because he is not controlled by anyone – Dem Party or wimpy swamp-dwelling Republicans. Neither gave Trump an inch and they undermine America by undermining our president. Donald Trump does pay attention to God and Americans are glad that he does.

If Mr. Trump happened to be crossing the street and he stepped off a curb and crushed a newly fallen fully formed beautiful blue robin egg, the press would hang him for being anti-bird, anti-animal, and uncaring. Meanwhile when he ran for president, his opponent had gotten four Americans with mothers and fathers back home killed in Benghazi and the press would not even acknowledge the story. Something was wrong, and you know what it was. We needed Donald Trump and Mike Pence to bring America back to reality and truth. That's "Why Trump Got Elected!" That's why God intervened in this great 2016 election.

The country's issues included oppressive taxation; legal and illegal immigrants stealing the best jobs; regulations choking businesses; huge debt and deficits shackling our capital resources; a government Obamacare system that added taxes and made health worse; and corporate offshoring, which created a weaker nation. Mrs. Clinton was ready to continue this because she supported Barack H. Obama's policies which had created the whole mess in the first place.

Additionally, we have a massive energy dependency on our enemies. We redistribute wealth from producers to non-producers. We permit a huge, growing, inefficient government to operate. It continually lies, taxes too much and spends more than it has. Our government had become enemy # 1 of the people. A good plan, endorsed by Mr. Trump, along with good leaders such as Donald Trump & Mike Pence is now in place and the plan and the leaders are already saving US from Obama perdition. That's "Why God Gave US Trump!"

Preface:

There are many of us who, after crying out for relief for our country for eight years, believe in our hearts that God's answer to America is Donald Trump. It is up to US now to make sure we make the most of God's great gift.

I knew that I was voting for Donald Trump as soon as he broke through the pack of Republicans and began his showdowns with his real opponent, Hillary Clinton. Like many Democrats, I had had enough of Obama and the Clintons, but my predilection to Trump was more because of him and not because of Clinton negatives. It had more to do with the fact that he reminded me of a last man standing in the way of a country ready to go off a big cliff.

At the end of the day, when the dust had settled, and the battle was over, the last man standing won. Donald Trump won the election despite all odds. In many ways he got elected because he was the last man standing between an Obama-like American hell-hole and a return to the Promised Land of our founders.

"Millions of Americans," declared Dallas megachurch pastor Robert Jeffries in 2017, "believe the election of President Trump represented God giving us another chance—perhaps our last chance—to truly make America great again. Our job was to elect him once God showed us the way. We thank Our Lord to this day that we did.

Donald Trump got elected because someone whispered into the individual ears of millions of Americans that together in this election, we could make a difference, and Donald Trump would be that difference. The people trusted this self-made Billionaire to do what was best for America and not the bidding of slimy politicians or political donors, rats, and hacks.

Donald Trump was the only candidate for president who offered Americans a breath of fresh air from the stodgy, bossy, establishment elites in both the Democratic and Republican Parties. Trump defied the status quo of rich donors controlling the government for their personal benefit. Donald Trump to many, including myself is one of the greatest gifts of all-time from God himself.

Trump represents a welcome change from establishment elitist politics. His great ideas for solving the issues facing America today lined up with the thinking of most Americans who were paying attention and who were annoyed at the prior administration.

I am glad that you are reading this book, so you too can understand why Donald Trump was not just a default choice for President. I wrote an essay early in the campaign titled, God gave us Donald Trump. I stood by that thought even after the Democrats continue to add Russian characters into their daily soap opera trying to replay and undo the 2016 election. Dirty Democrat shenanigans are getting old, don't you think?. I have never been more pleased with a vote than my vote for Donald J. Trump. Thank you, Dear Lord.

He is a great man and he is already becoming a great president for you, me, and all those who love America. He knows business and we are already experiencing an enlivened economy. With substantial foreign business experience, he is setting America up as the top dog in the world, and as expected, he is making no apologies.

Trump is a tough American, so we can count on not being pushed around in foreign affairs or delicate negotiations. Our new president as expected, is a winner all the way around. He loves helping all Americans win. He hates to lose and seldom does. America is very happy that we now have someone in charge who believes we can win.

The weaknesses of the Republican Party came out in spades in the primary season and continued as weak-kneed RINOs such as Jeb Bush, John Kasich, Lindsey Graham, John McCain decided to become tools for the Democrats. During the campaign Donald Trump did not even give them lip service.

In his own way, Mr. Trump told them and all the establishment elites where to go. I like that. I suspect God will get them there eventually. These RINOs and their Progressive Marxist friends across the aisle had been destroying America for their own benefit. It took a guy with guts and stamina to beat them. The last man standing stood against them and won a great victory for the people.

Donald Trump first whooped everybody who was anybody in the GOP. He then ran against a person that some call a withered fascist--Hillary Clinton. There were many Democrats like me who felt that we could not afford a liar in the White House. We were all in for Donald J. Trump. People in my own family who were Democrats for years, switched to Republican so they too could vote for Trump in the PA Primary.

For those who can ignore the media's fake news and outright lies, there is plenty to admire about President Trump. Watching his children in action at the GOP convention and the chemistry within the Trump family, Americans got the full sense of what a fine man and a fine dad he is.

America needs Donald Trump—a businessman and a great negotiator to compete in the world, not somebody like the former president who unfortunately for the country found business as a necessary unpleasant evil. Barack Obama chose to have nothing to do with sound business principles while being in charge of the US economy. Hillary Clinton was ready to be more of the same—a third Term of Obama.

Whether he did or not, the former president gave the impression for years that he had true disdain for America and Americans. It was like he would have loved all Americans to give up their freedoms and become government dependents. I am convinced that he would have liked America to give up its position as #1 in the world to give other countries more of a chance to beat us. Trump is clearly for America and Americans-First and he demonstrated that in his nearly 400 huge campaign rallies. Trump was a Nationalist / Populist running as a Republican because it made business sense to not go third party.

Hillary was more like Obama -- socialistic and Marxist and she came off even more radical than Obama. For example, Hillary never seemed to be too keen on freedom. She likes her freedom for sure but not yours. She was working on eliminating the Bill of Rights and had already earmarked the # 1 and #2 Amendments of the Constitution for removal.

Yes, we were at the point in our history in which a presidential candidate's position of not being actively opposed to the Bill of Rights was a key selling point for their candidacy.

The GOP today is still full of losers and babies who won't even keep their vows made in the pledge to support the Party's own nominee. No wonder the prior president was treated as an emperor. His sad agenda received no interference from the wimpy GOP. The scaredy-cat RINOS quaked at the sight of Obama. Then they became Never-Trumpers. To me, they are all losers—especially the Bushes and Marco Rubio, Billy Kristol and George Will. Trump doesn't quake at anything. In fact, he makes me proud to be an American

For years, I have hoped that somebody such as Rush Limbaugh or Donald Trump or somebody with influence and power and money would come along to change our two-party system. I put my vision to words in two books, the first, written five years ago titled, Kill the Republican Party, and the second written in the summer of 2017, titled It's Time for the John Doe Party.

The idea is to rid the party of the swamp and start over again with a new name such as The American Party or The John Doe Party, hoping to attract all current Republican regular people—the 89% who today favor Trump, leaving the RINOS, the Never Trumpers, and the Swamp behind. I think the new party would attract all Democrats who are like me--pro-American to a fault. It is still a dream yet for many like me as we are watching the disappointing Republican Congress very closely. We are very unhappy with Swamp rats such as Paul Ryan and Mitch McConnell, who have ignored us for too many years.

For this ole conservative Democrat, the Republicans for years—even when my dad and I voted together before he died, always seemed to be the better choice than the far-left whacko Democrats. Yet, after Reagan, there were too many bad choices and too many weak men.

Donald Trump has a lot of Reagan toughness and goodness in him. He has a great plan for America and in this book, we answer definitively the question of one big supernatural reason "Why Trump Got Elected!" Besides being favored by God, and maybe that alone is enough, first of all, Trump was and still is the best choice. Second, he is honest. Third, he has kept his word about making America great again in ways in which Americans will all be so pleased. Trump is destined to be a great President. In my prayers I ask the Lord to take care of him so that he can provide for America for many years and set us up for another good leaders when his eight years are up.

America has had more than one economic issue for sure, but it still is the best place to live on earth. When Donald Trump was inaugurated, our nation was full to the brim with economic issues. When tackled one by one, they are now being solved and right now, there are many works in process—being solved thanks to the new President.

This book shows reminds us of many of the problems that during the Obama years prevented many people in American from having a good life. Donald Trump and Mike Pence have taken on the mission to make life better for all Americans. Trump had a good life before becoming President. He did not have to help us. I am so glad he is. I bet God whispered in his ear to get him moving, putting all his gifts together to help America. Thank you God. Thank you Donald Trump.

I sure hope you enjoy this book and I hope that it inspires you to continue to take action. Our Congress can certainly be more pro-American and more responsive to the people's needs and not their own. I hope the book in some ways helps you look at things differently.

Our new president has settled in and he is already implementing a host of innovative items on his agenda. I hope you digest Trump's entire plan, be willing to adopt it, and add to it your own positive notions for building a better America. And, please do not trust the press to do your thinking for you.

Together, we can help make the US a far better country. We should smile as we accomplished our first and best objective. We elected Donald Trump as our president. Now, we must support his hard work and speak up to the Congress when they get in his way.

Chapter 1 Did God Give America Donald Trump?

I think God is a Trump supporter. I for one am very glad that he (Trump) came along. Aren't you? I am going to stop right now and reprint an email I sent out the other day to remind my friends and relatives about my perception of Mr. Trump before the election.

Only those who choose not to see, cannot see what is happening today with all the hate for this man from the left and all the love from the right!. So, today I went back to the Wilkes-Barre Citizen's Voice Newspaper Archives and I found the letter to the editor that I sent in two months before the 2016 election. I am glad God heard my prayer.

Perhaps you will enjoy this as much as I enjoyed rereading it. Those who stand still when they have the chance to act in God's favor often regret their inaction. I am tickled and proud of myself that despite seemingly popular sentiments, I was inspired to write this brief piece and send it in. If I could only open some hearts along the way, perhaps we could diffuse some of the hate. After all, we are all Americans and thus we should all be for the best for America.

2 Why Trump Got Elected!

Here is what I sent:

LETTER TO THE EDITOR / PUBLISHED: SEPTEMBER 11,
2016 WB CITIZENS Voice

There are many billionaires who want things their way on taxes and they figure they will benefit if their lobbyists get to the right politician. Donald Trump is actually running for office as a billionaire. He does not need a job. Yet, he is investing a lot of time in America. He does not need it. But, if he is successful, his kids will grow up in America and he wants it to be the finest country of any possible country ever. Bravo, Donald Trump.

Mr. Trump wants it to be like the America as founded by honest founders. Donald Trump is intrinsically honest. He may round up on some issues in his favor but he is not corrupt. He wants his kids to love him and respect him just like you want your kids to think of you.

We are only on Earth for a short time. Why should we not do our best? I love that Donald Trump, a billionaire who needs me like a hole in the head, thinks I matter. He thinks you matter. He thinks America matters. He thinks God matters. He is right on all points. Unlike you and me, he has the means and the opportunity to really show God and his family what a good man he really is.

We have been waiting for you, Mr. Trump, since Ronald Reagan left us. God gave us Donald Trump. I am convinced that it is up to us to make him our president. We did not know how bad the Bushes were until they went into their recent crying tantrum because they lost. We just know that they were not too good when they had the power. Donald Trump is bombastic, arrogant when he knows he is right, and he is often inartful in his speech when he is upset. However, he, like my father, is a very good man. I welcome the opportunity to cast my vote for him. I thank God for the opportunity.

Chapter 2 The Corrupt Election Scenario

Was Candidate Trump destined to win?

Besides God saying it would be like that, there were a lot of reasons that Trump pulled off his victory. It is tough to differentiate direct intervention from the gifts God gave to “The Donald” at birth. Either way, Trump is blessed by God to deliver to the people.

As a Democrat, when Barack Obama beat “Milk Toast” Mitt Romney in 2008’s presidential election, though I voted for Romney, I was not too terribly upset that Obama had won. Like everybody else I knew little about him, but he seemed to be quite eloquent in his speech and did not appear to have a race axe to grind. Boy, was I wrong!

The two-year Senator from Illinois had not distinguished himself in his political career either positively or negatively and being a Community Organizer registered a who-cares on the importance scale. Mr. Obama had not extinguished himself, either. He could talk up a storm and he seemed like he would be a man in office who would preside fairly over America. I was not concerned initially. I did wonder, What the heck is a community organizer? Now I know and the definition itself was a harbinger of negative things to come.

For example, my recently deceased cousin Joe, was an executive of a bank that was forced by Community Organizers because of the Community Reinvestment Act to loan to anybody or they might lose their ability to provide loans. That of course would be the death of a bank. The governments imposed low lending standards were a significant component of the mortgage crisis.

Lenders made millions of loans to borrowers who, under normal market conditions, weren't able to pay them off. These decisions have cost lenders, especially leading financial institutions, tens of billions of dollars. We saw what happened in the sub-prime loan crisis. It was Community Organizers that forced the banks to provide mortgage loans to those who had no chance to pay them back. Nice idea if to was not so costly to America.

Though from my eyes at the time, but I am white, there was no blatant racism problem in the country for Obama to solve, I felt that the Obama presidency would really be post-racial. I figured finally the race war of the 1860's was behind us. The Negro slaves won that one with the help of the Union Army as I recall.

I was happy that our go at life at the turn of the 21st century was not like when we had those nasty race riots back in the 1960's. Things had gotten lots better in America. I was pleased that with a man, half white and half black, who identified as a "black" president, also understood the white world. With the stuff he got from his mother's side, we could finally put all of the ill-will about race from the past behind us. Surely there would be good times ahead.

My biggest surprise was that a "black man" would be so obviously biased on behalf of the black population. I knew that God had not told him to be that way. I was shocked to find President Obama to be one-sided in favor of blacks. My first glimpse of the President's innate bias was well on display when on July 16, 2009, when Harvard University professor Henry Louis Gates Jr., was arrested at his Cambridge, Massachusetts, home by local police officer Sgt. James Crowley. The officer was responding to a 9-1-1 caller's report of men breaking and entering the residence. Without giving a blow by blow, the President immediately blamed the police and later had to create a national showcase at the infamous "Beer Summit," to prove that he, the president was not anti-white and/or anti-police. That was a bad omen for sure.

I soon learned that whites had little chance in the new post-racial Obama presidency. I looked in the mirror and a white guy was staring back at me. From my eyes, race relations were Obama's first failure as president. I quickly learned that I could not trust him to do the right thing for America. I was very disappointed for eight years as from my eyes things in general, not just race, got worse, not better.

When Hillary Clinton promised four more years of Obama, when she chose to take her turn as president. I knew that I would do whatever I could to help somebody else become president no matter who it might be. I had had my fill. But, I never rioted or suggested that President Obama be impeached.

Donald Trump was not my favorite in the beginning, but he soon became my favorite as I learned that he would not be pushed around by anybody. I like to recall my reaction to Trump when I finally understood him as a breath of fresh air. I was beginning to think that the age of reasonable, human presidents had ended with Reagan.

To support him in his candidacy, in addition to sending in some checks and attending rallies, I wrote at least ten books and a number of letters to the editor in support of the Trump presidency. I gave my books away to anybody who wanted one and brought them to biker rallies such as one held above Scranton, PA in Dalton.

At this rally sponsored by Chris Cox and the Bikers for Trump, I put a bunch of books out for the taking to help the cause. My most popular Trump for president book was about 240 pages and it was titled Why Trump? This book, "God Gave US Donald Trump !!!" is a follow-up to that very popular book.

To show how I really felt about the Trump candidacy and to help others see things differently than what appeared to be the original and continuing drive-by-media thinking. I sent the following letter to the local paper, The Citizens' Voice. I titled it God gave us Donald Trump. Yes, it is the same letter I showed you in Chapter 1, but then again, this book is about God and Trump and man and I learn something each time I read the latter. I did not treat the notion of God's role in the election lightly. The piece is short, so I have included it again below. I really like it and hope you do too!

There are many billionaires who want things their way on taxes and they figure they will benefit if their lobbyists get to the right politician. Donald Trump is actually running for office as a billionaire. He does not need a job. Yet, he is investing a lot of time in America. He does not need it. After that little piece ran in the Citizens' Voice, nobody had to guess which candidate I was endorsing.

Like many others, I welcomed a change to times in which America was heralded and not put down. I longed for a period in which the Democratic Party and its minions would not parade around the world apologizing for America and Americans. As I saw Donald Trump, mostly on the US stage, giving his speeches and talking about making America great again, I was very encouraged. Believing him, was like believing the Gospel, the word of God, according to one of the four evangelists. I still smile each time I wake up and it has been going on since November 8, 2016.

Chapter 3 Michael Moore & then Candidate Donald Trump

During some time in 2016, I began to believe that Donald Trump might very well become our President of the United States of America. I admit, this caused me some fear. I was scared somewhat of what the dirty Democrats might do to make it not happen. God knows they tried and they are still trying to eliminate Trump.

I never in my life saw the dirty politics and corruption that I was seeing in the period preceding the 2016 election. From the email survey to the destruction of evidence to the Tarmac meeting with Bill Clinton, etc. etc. etc., the Democrat controlled FBI forgave her for her crimes, even without the concurrence of the Attorney General. Hillary enjoyed exoneration for her crimes while Donald Trump is literally being persecuted for having beaten her fair and square. Somewhere along the way, American justice had left town.

Hillary would lie and the press would vouch for it. I was ever fearful that the corrupt press would try to slant the opinion of many Americans to favor Mrs. Clinton over the bombastic Trump. That is exactly what they did—as if they were a branch of the Democratic Party instead of the Fourth Estate.

They rooted for the election of another Clinton instead of delivering facts to the people as a real Fourth Estate would do. Trump helped me quickly learn they were not real and their product was not real. Most of the media was engaging in Fake News. The truth was the major victim, even before the American people. It was one of the first identifications of fake news.

At the time, I was unaware that Michael Moore, about whom I have little regard, had concerns just the opposite of mine. His biggest fear was that Donald Trump would become president of the United States.

Michael Moore predicted Trump's big win

Who is Michael Moore? Adrian Wooldridge of the Weekly Standard does an accurate job of describing Moore:

THERE ARE MANY THINGS that can be said against Michael Moore. An odd combination of Howard Stern and Paul Krugman, Moore is the king of all left-wing media, from films to books, who specializes in trashing everything that conservative America holds dear. For Moore, businessmen are always trampling on the faces of the poor, Republicans are always the tools of sinister vested interests, and America is always up to no good in the world. But say this for the pudgy auteur, he has his uses as a timesaver at dinner parties in hyper-partisan America. If the woman next to you admires Moore, she probably dated Dean and is now firmly married to Kerry; if she regards Moore as a bilious blowhard, then she is probably going to vote for George W. Bush.

Michael Moore wrote this little piece on his web site offering five major reasons for his deep concern about Hillary's probable loss. To help liberal progressives, who are reading this book, know that I did my research, I present one of their own, Mike Moore, whose reasons why Trump would win were not at all off the mark. In many ways Michael Moore described in no uncertain terms "Why God got Trump Elected!"

I have reproduced it almost exactly as it was written on his site. I cleaned it up a little as it was tough to understand in his stream of consciousness. Moore talked about five reasons why he thought Trump would win the election. Yet, in his stream of conscious style of writing he forgot to identify a few of his points. Without a few missing numbers, it was over. I found another article where he made the same points and I inserted the numbers into his Web opening where they would have been if he was alive and awake while he was writing. That is the only change I made so this is Michael Moore at his best or worst depending on your Trump perspective.

You will see that Moore wrote this Web diatribe in a caustic, sarcastic, nasty tone and he put down all Americans as losers and dummies if they favored Trump over Hillary. Nonetheless, he got it right—Trump was going to win—and there was nothing he could do about it. Pshaw!

Please try not to be offended if you are a pro-Trump guy like myself. He is hard on us for sure. We can take some solace as Moore was pre-feeling his pain as Trump had yet to win... but Trump did win and that can make us all feel better about the present and the future. Sorry MM. Here is Michael Moore in all his glory:

Friends:

I am sorry to be the bearer of bad news, but I gave it to you straight last summer when I told you that Donald Trump would be the Republican nominee for president. And now I have even more awful, depressing news for you: Donald J. Trump is going to win in November. This wretched, ignorant, dangerous part-time clown and full-time sociopath is going to be our next president. President Trump. Go ahead and say the words, 'cause you'll be saying them for the next four years: "PRESIDENT TRUMP."

Never in my life have I wanted to be proven wrong more than I do right now.

[Michael Moore is a nasty guy. Don't you think? What if it were Trump talking about Hillary or Obama or even Michael Moore? – A wretched, ignorant, dangerous part-time clown and full-time sociopath—can you imagine anybody calling Obama that?]

I can see what you're doing right now. You're shaking your head wildly – “No, Mike, this won't happen!” Unfortunately, you are living in a bubble that comes with an adjoining echo chamber where you and your friends are convinced the American people are not going to elect an idiot for president. You alternate between being appalled at him and laughing at him because of his latest crazy comment or his embarrassingly narcissistic stance on everything because everything is about him. And then you listen to Hillary and you behold our very first female president, someone the world respects, someone who is whip-smart and cares about kids, who will continue the Obama legacy because that is what the American people clearly want! Yes! Four more years of this!

[The mere thought of that last part would turn the stomachs of a lot of good Americans who had enough of the Clintonistas.]

You need to exit that bubble right now. You need to stop living in denial and face the truth which you know deep down is very, very real. Trying to soothe yourself with the facts – “77% of the electorate are women, people of color, young adults under 35 and Trump can't win a majority of any of them!” [Try to soothe yourself with] or logic – “people aren't going to vote for a buffoon or against their own best interests!” – is your brain's way of trying to protect you from trauma.

Like when you hear a loud noise on the street and you think, “oh, a tire just blew out,” or, “wow, who's playing with firecrackers?” because you don't want to think you just heard someone being shot with a gun. It's the same reason why all the initial news and eyewitness reports on 9/11 said “a small plane accidentally flew into the World Trade Center.”

We want to – we need to – hope for the best because, frankly, life is already a shit show and it’s hard enough struggling to get by from paycheck to paycheck. [Michael Moore is a multi-millionaire.]

We can’t handle much more bad news. So, our mental state goes to default when something scary is actually, truly happening. The first people plowed down by the truck in Nice spent their final moments on earth waving at the driver whom they thought had simply lost control of his truck, trying to tell him that he jumped the curb: “Watch out!” they shouted. “There are people on the sidewalk!”

Well, folks, this isn’t an accident. It is happening. And if you believe Hillary Clinton is going to beat Trump with facts and smarts and logic, then you obviously missed the past year of 56 primaries and caucuses where 16 Republican candidates tried that, and every kitchen sink they could throw at Trump and nothing could stop his juggernaut. As of today, as things stand now, I believe this is going to happen – and in order to deal with it, I need you first to acknowledge it, and then maybe, just maybe, we can find a way out of the mess we’re in.

[Yes, Mr. Moore. You were right. Donald Trump is now our President and it is because of nasty people like you, not in spite of you.]

Don’t get me wrong. I have great hope for the country I live in. [Give me a break!] Things are better. The left has won the cultural wars. Gays and lesbians can get married. A majority of Americans now take the liberal position on just about every polling question posed to them: Equal pay for women – check. Abortion should be legal – check. Stronger environmental laws – check. More gun control – check. Legalize marijuana – check. A huge shift has taken place – just ask the socialist who won 22 states this year. And there is no doubt in my mind that if people could vote from their couch at home on their X-box or PlayStation, Hillary would win in a landslide. [Dear Mike, what does that say about her constituency?]

But that is not how it works in America. People have to leave the house and get in line to vote. And if they live in poor, Black or Hispanic neighborhoods, they not only have a longer line to wait in, everything is being done to literally stop them from casting a ballot.

[Mike, how do you know this? Where do you vote?]

So, in most elections it's hard to get even 50% to turn out to vote. And therein lies the problem for November – who is going to have the most motivated, most inspired voters show up to vote? You know the answer to this question. Who's the candidate with the most rabid supporters? Whose crazed fans are going to be up at 5 AM on Election Day, kicking ass all day long, all the way until the last polling place has closed, making sure every Tom, Dick and Harry (and Bob and Joe and Billy Bob and Billy Joe and Billy Bob Joe) has cast his ballot?

[Do we all see Moore's disdain for non coastal America?]

That's right. That's the high level of danger we're in. And don't fool yourself — no amount of compelling Hillary TV ads, or out-facting him in the debates or Libertarians siphoning votes away from Trump is going to stop his mojo.

Here are the 5 reasons Trump is going to win:

1. Midwest Math, or Welcome to Our Rust Belt Brexit. I believe Trump is going to focus much of his attention on the four blue states in the rustbelt of the upper Great Lakes – Michigan, Ohio, Pennsylvania and Wisconsin. Four traditionally Democratic states – but each of them have elected a Republican governor since 2010 (only Pennsylvania has now finally elected a Democrat). In the Michigan primary in March, more Michiganders came out to vote for the Republicans (1.32 million) than the Democrats (1.19 million).

Trump is ahead of Hillary in the latest polls in Pennsylvania and tied with her in Ohio. Tied? How can the race be this close after everything Trump has said and done? [Mike, maybe you should listen and if you have a jiminy cricket inside, i.e. a conscience, has it stopped saying anything to you.]

Well, maybe it's because he's said (correctly) that the Clintons' support of NAFTA helped to destroy the industrial states of the Upper Midwest. Trump is going to hammer Clinton on this and her support of TPP and other trade policies that have royally screwed the people of these four states.

When Trump stood in the shadow of a Ford Motor factory during the Michigan primary, he threatened the corporation that if they did indeed go ahead with their planned closure of that factory and move it to Mexico, he would slap a 35% tariff on any Mexican-built cars shipped back to the United States. It was sweet, sweet music to the ears of the working class of Michigan, and when he tossed in his threat to Apple that he would force them to stop making their iPhones in China and build them here in America, well, hearts swooned, and Trump walked away with a big victory that should have gone to the governor next-door, John Kasich. [But Kasich had no ideas!]

From Green Bay to Pittsburgh, this, my friends, is the middle of England – broken, depressed, struggling, the smokestacks strewn across the countryside with the carcass of what we use to call the Middle Class. Angry, embittered working (and nonworking) people who were lied to by the trickle-down of Reagan and abandoned by Democrats who still try to talk a good line but are really just looking forward to rub one out with a lobbyist from Goldman Sachs who'll write them nice big check before leaving the room. [Why mention that cheap, foreign, illegal labor has taken American jobs and those not taken are available to anybody for just a skosh less than the minimum wage. How about that Mike?]

What happened in the UK with Brexit is going to happen here. {great! Have you become a corporatist Mr. Moore?} Elmer Gantry shows up looking like Boris Johnson and just says whatever shit he can make up to convince the masses that this is their chance! To stick it to ALL of them, all who wrecked their American Dream! And now The Outsider, Donald Trump, [Are you an SWAMP insider, Mr. Moore, and why?] has arrived to clean house!

You don't have to agree with him! You don't even have to like him! He is your personal Molotov cocktail to throw right into the center of the bastards who did this to you! SEND A MESSAGE! TRUMP IS YOUR MESSENGER!

And this is where the math comes in. In 2012, Mitt Romney lost by 64 electoral votes. Add up the electoral votes cast by Michigan, Ohio, Pennsylvania and Wisconsin. It's 64. All Trump needs to do to win is to carry, as he's expected to do, the swath of traditional red states from Idaho to Georgia (states that'll never vote for Hillary Clinton), and then he just needs these four rust belt states. He doesn't need Florida. He doesn't need Colorado or Virginia. Just Michigan, Ohio, Pennsylvania and Wisconsin. And that will put him over the top. This is how it will happen in November.

[The following #s, 2, 3, & 4, were inserted here because Moore's stream of consciousness writing made him lose count of his five reasons.]

2. The Trump Family

Trump's main surrogates—his own family—have become Republican National Convention stars, and their testimonials may cause voters to consider, "Well, if he raised them, he can't be so bad, right?" Moore points out that the family members are not really looking like the "hostages" liberal voters might have thought they would. In fact, "between [Melania] and the children, none of them have offered any of the sort of anecdotes that you would expect," Moore pointed out.

3. Make America Great Again? How About Just Reality Television

Moore believes Trump doesn't even want to be in the White House; that he'll give it to Mike Pence and his children after buying an estate in Fairfax. "The thing that we're describing...

'Make America Great Again'... He's gonna turn his presidency into a reality show; a literal reality show. But if I say that, millions are gonna go, fk yeah," Moore said.

4. The Last Stand of the Angry White Man. Our male-dominated, 240-year run of the USA is coming to an end. A woman is about to take over! How did this happen?! On our watch! There were warning signs, but we ignored them. Nixon, the gender traitor, imposing Title IX on us, the rule that said girls in school should get an equal chance at playing sports. Then they let them fly commercial jets. Before we knew it, Beyoncé stormed on the field at this year's Super Bowl (our game!) with an army of Black Women, fists raised, declaring that our domination was hereby terminated! Oh, the humanity!

That's a small peek into the mind of the Endangered White Male. There is a sense that the power has slipped out of their hands, that their way of doing things is no longer how things are done. This monster, the "Feminazi," the thing that as Trump says, "bleeds through her eyes or wherever she bleeds," has conquered us — and now, after having had to endure eight years of a black man telling us what to do, we're supposed to just sit back and take eight years of a woman bossing us around? After that it'll be eight years of the gays in the White House! Then the transgenders! You can see where this is going. By then animals will have been granted human rights and a f--in' hamster is going to be running the country. This has to stop!

[Does it bother other whiteys that we cannot say anything bad about blacky while our whiteness is besmirched?]

[Here is another mainstream media insert to make up for Moore's stream of consciousness daydreaming on his web site.]

5. The Two Sides Don't Even Talk Anymore

It's worth investigating the yearlong conundrum of why poor, middle-America voters identify so well with an egocentric real estate mogul from New York. "When you say he hasn't read a book in his adult life, you've just described the majority of Americans. Get out of your bubble, everybody!" Moore urged.

[Back to Michael Moore's best stream of consciousness writing]

The Hillary Problem. Can we speak honestly, just among ourselves? And before we do, let me state, I actually like Hillary – a lot – and I think she has been given a bad rap she doesn't deserve. But her vote for the Iraq War made me promise her that I would never vote for her again. To date, I haven't broken that promise. For the sake of preventing a proto-fascist from becoming our commander-in-chief, I'm breaking that promise. I sadly believe Clinton will find a way to get us in some kind of military action. She's a hawk, to the right of Obama. But Trump's psycho finger will be on The Button, and that is that. Done and done.

Still Moore; but who picked Hillary?

Let's face it: Our biggest problem here isn't Trump – it's Hillary. She is hugely unpopular — nearly 70% of all voters think she is untrustworthy and dishonest. [Truth!!!] She represents the old way of politics, not really believing in anything other than what can get you elected. That's why she fights against gays getting married one moment, and the next she's officiating a gay marriage.

Young women are among her biggest detractors, which has to hurt considering it's the sacrifices and the battles that Hillary and other women of her generation endured so that this younger generation would never have to be told by the Barbara Bushes of the world that they should just shut up and go bake some cookies.]The Bushes were also anti-Trump!]

But the kids don't like her, and not a day goes by that a millennial doesn't tell me they aren't voting for her. No Democrat, and certainly no independent, is waking up on November 8th excited to run out and vote for Hillary the way they did the day Obama became president or when Bernie was on the primary ballot. The enthusiasm just isn't there. And because this election is going to come down to just one thing — who drags the most people out of the house and gets them to the polls — Trump right now is in the catbird seat.

The Depressed Sanders Vote. Stop fretting about Bernie’s supporters not voting for Clinton – we’re voting for Clinton! The polls already show that more Sanders voters will vote for Hillary this year than the number of Hillary primary voters in ’08 who then voted for Obama. This is not the problem. The fire alarm that should be going off is that while the average Bernie backer will drag him/herself to the polls that day to somewhat reluctantly vote for Hillary, it will be what’s called a “depressed vote” – meaning the voter doesn’t bring five people to vote with her. He doesn’t volunteer 10 hours in the month leading up to the election. She never talks in an excited voice when asked why she’s voting for Hillary.

A depressed voter. Because, when you’re young, you have zero tolerance for phonies and BS. Returning to the Clinton/Bush era for them is like suddenly having to pay for music, or using Myspace or carrying around one of those big-ass portable phones. They’re not going to vote for Trump; some will vote third party, but many will just stay home. Hillary Clinton is going to have to do something to give them a reason to support her — and picking a moderate, bland-o, middle of the road old white guy as her running mate is not the kind of edgy move that tells millennials that their vote is important to Hillary. Having two women on the ticket – that was an exciting idea. But then Hillary got scared and has decided to play it safe. This is just one example of how she is killing the youth vote. [Mike there are a lot of whites who vote—did anybody ever think of that?]

The Jesse Ventura Effect. Finally, do not discount the electorate’s ability to be mischievous or underestimate how any millions fancy themselves as closet anarchists once they draw the curtain and are all alone in the voting booth. It’s one of the few places left in society where there are no security cameras, no listening devices, no spouses, no kids, no boss, no cops, there’s not even a friggin’ time limit. You can take as long as you need in there and no one can make you do anything. You can push the button and vote a straight party line, or you can write in Mickey Mouse and Donald Duck. There are no rules.

And because of that, and the anger that so many have toward a broken political system, millions are going to vote for Trump not because they agree with him, not because they like his bigotry or ego, but just because they can. [Who cares why. With Trump 2018 results, we all know it was a good choice.]

Just because it will upset the apple cart and make mommy and daddy mad. And in the same way like when you're standing on the edge of Niagara Falls and your mind wonders for a moment what would that feel like to go over that thing, a lot of people are going to love being in the position of puppet master and plunking down for Trump just to see what that might look like.

Remember back in the '90s when the people of Minnesota elected a professional wrestler as their governor? They didn't do this because they're stupid or thought that Jesse Ventura was some sort of statesman or political intellectual. They did so just because they could. Minnesota is one of the smartest states in the country. It is also filled with people who have a dark sense of humor — and voting for Ventura was their version of a good practical joke on a sick political system. This is going to happen again with Trump.

Coming back to the hotel after appearing on Bill Maher's Republican Convention special this week on HBO, a man stopped me. "Mike," he said, "we have to vote for Trump. We HAVE to shake things up." That was it. That was enough for him. To "shake things up." President Trump would indeed do just that, and a good chunk of the electorate would like to sit in the bleachers and watch that reality show.

[Mike, we are not sitting, we are talking about Trump to everybody who brings in thousands more a year to make sure they know that neither you nor Hillary got them their bonanza—and more is coming!]

Yours,
Michael Moore

Jennifer Harper of the Washington Times in November 2017 reported on the public's reaction to diatribes such as those spewn by Michael Moore. Moore's inarticulate ramblings are representative of an unhinged, unglued constituency, which includes wounded Democrats and a complicit, biased and downright corrupt press.

The public is just not buying it though if you could cull through the garbage Moore writes and speaks you can feel his deep fear from 2016 that Trump would get elected. Ironically, for those of us familiar with the likes of a hold-your-nose type of person as Michael Moore, with his fear of Trump projecting to everybody he met, it was far better than a Trump endorsement. It contributed to "Why Trump Got Elected!"

Harper wrote about the relentless, hostile media coverage of President Trump and his administration could be reaching the saturation point. "The public appears weary, wary and quite possibly ready to move on — hungry, perhaps, for credible news coverage over biased caterwaul."

It is hard to find a good purpose for people like Michael Moore

I suspect God puts us all here for a good reason even if the good reason appears to be a bad reason. I have been a registered Democrat for forty-five years. My dad and I were once proud Democrats but the last pride we shared in voting Democrat was for Bob Casey Sr., a great man and a wonderful governor of Pennsylvania. His son, Bob Jr. IMHO is not worthy of tying the senior Casey's shoes. That is why this is the second time I am running against him for US Senate.

I was reinforced in the notion that Democrats left me behind a long time ago was when I tried to make sense out of Michael Moore's unintelligible diatribe above. Some people think that his venom is journalism and the Democrat Party Leaders all seem to think Moore's regurgitations are great for business. He sure separates JFK Democrats from riff raff of today. I still hope Democrats can recover but I have no expectations. Reading Michael Moore surely deadens hope for the Party's future. America itself thus has little hope without conservatives really stepping up.

I put the Michael Moore (MM) soliloquy second in this book, so that after God's will, I could remind the readers of how it is—in the words of what my dad and I would call a lost Democrat. This is not my father's Democratic Party and if it keeps moving left and left and even "leftier." It may not even be a real political party any more.

Whatever happened to Democrats being for the American working man?

God bless all normal Americans, recognizing that Democrats have lost their legitimate claim to any normalcy. Donald Trump's period as CEO of America is already very fruitful. Check your 401K, please. Remember, a better America, not a Michael Moore America is definitely why Trump got elected and why God was his major backer.

Chapter 4 God Knew That Trump Was HIS Best Answer

Love or hate?

You either loved Donald Trump when he ran for President or you hated him. There was no in-between then and there is no in-between now. If you love America, even if you may have trusted Obama, with no good reason, few were ready for four more Obama years with Hillary Clinton as his new name. God protected us

If you never figured that out, or if you are now flirting with the new Winfrey on the block to become the popular president then I regret that you, my friend, are a part of the problem, not the solution. It is a problem that America and Americans must solve before this country can ever be great again on a consistent basis. Trump and God got us here, but can Americans handle the success? Will we throw it away on the Winfrey du jour in the future? Say “No!”

Can you imagine how successful the anti-American deep state would have been with Mrs. Clinton as president? I thank God, every time I realize that Donald Trump is the President of my United States of America. I can't wait to hear the Oprah's first post-racial address. Since Obama, everything is about race? It is because Democrats have stopped dealing with real American issues such as jobs, and real healthcare for the working class.

After a full year and almost a second, I still happen to love our President for the right reasons. As I noted in my Chapter 1 editorial, I find him to be a gift from God to the American people in our time of great need.

After all the weak, wimpy, wobbly conservative leaders, groomed by establishment elitism, who offered little recognition or solutions for the concerns of the American citizens; Donald J. Trump, my candidate for president has been a deep breath of fresh air. Among the Republican electorate, his approval rating is a chart-topping 88%. Hey, I approve, and I am a reluctant Democrat.

Thank you, Donald J. Trump for doing the United States a big favor by taking on corruption in both political parties as well as the media. You are doing just fine and my friends and relatives appreciate your taking a hiatus from your wonderful storybook life and using your time to help us. We sure need it.

Supporters cheer as President Donald Trump speaks in Great Falls, Mont., on July 5. Among Republicans, his job approval rating stands at 88%. PHOTO: JOSHUA ROBERTS/REUTERS

Though some felt when you ran in 2016 that you were not a viable candidate at the beginning, I was not among their ranks. I saw you grow from day one, when you were introduced to the piranha at the first Republican primary debate. You did very well but nobody would acknowledge you because you were and continue to be the biggest threat to all of the establishment elites in both parties that has ever existed. You are especially not liked by the corrupt press because you call them out on their dishonesty. Thank you, President Trump.

You have taken the Republican electorate by storm (88%) and I love watching you climb higher and higher in the polls, though when you ran for office, Hillary Clinton. was always deemed the favorite by the corrupt media. On your way to a great victory, you also won over many Democrats including a number in my own family—long time progressives who had finally had enough of liberal lies.

They switched to Republican, so they could vote for you in the PA primary. They are all very smart people, especially my wonderful sister-in-law, Diane who never gave an inch before Trump. She became a Trumpster. It took a while for a lot of Democrats, such as I, to know that today's Democratic leaders are really progressives who care little about the American people and that includes most regular Democrats.

Buried in the 12% disapproval rating are some real conservatives, nationalists, and populists who believed that the elite Republicans who later were identified as the SWAMP and the NEVER-Trumpers who could never be trusted. Some, like the Bushes, we had one time trusted enough to give them governorships and presidencies but God helped us recently understand that the Bush's were always for the elite and they all but lied to all the people about important American issues such as immigration. We did not know it then but wondered why no action on immigration in eight Bush years.

What a disappointment for me and many. The whining Bushes became babies about Trump's rough way of dealing with them as political foes. They are now Never Trumpers of the highest order, meaning they have no regard for the American people who voted for them or President Trump. I lost my respect for the Bushes when they exchanged their love of America for selfish retribution.

Along with a number of one-time favorites of conservatives, these guys had always been against conservatives but had lied and played along for political gain. Here is a list of some of the most notorious of these "outlaws" without mentioning the Bushes again. Many, who still hold elected office have gotten quiet or have recanted their negative allegiance. Trump has more than proven himself and of course for self-preservation, many came back into the fold. However, there are many more, such as those in the short list below and on the next page who have not come back and many have become dirty Democrats to spite Trump. Why the Democratic Party would even want such people is a conundrum.

Jennifer Rubin
David Frum
Ana Navarro
Bill Kristol
Brit Hume

Michael Chertoff,
 Michael Mukasey
 Colin Powell
 Tom Ridge,
 John Kasich
 Mitt Romney
 John McCain
 Jeff Flake
 Joe Scarborough
 J.C. Watts
 Max Boot,
 Steve Schmidt
 George Will
 Leon Wolf
 Glenn Beck
 Stephen Hayes
 Etc.

As far as I am concerned, these guys are all either buffoons or goofs. They all have one thing in common. As kids when they took their ball and went home, not a one of them had paid for the ball and none of them were ever paperboys. The scent of privilege wafts in the air as I recite their names.

I read where New York Times columnist David Brooks recently declared that the anti-Trump movement is a failure. Brooks lines up with the Never Trumpers and he says that “We have persuaded no one.... We have not hindered him.... We have not dislodged him.... We have not contained him.” He went on to suggest that the “Trump’s takeover of the Republican Party is complete. Eighty-nine percent of Republicans have a positive impression of the man.”

The new Republicans minus guys like George Will who quit the Party over Trump is a party that is almost 100% united for the good of America. Some negative people would say that Trump supporters are all in accord with a supposed Trump agenda of “antipathy toward Muslims, immigrants, atheists, and gays and lesbians, and racial resentment and concerns about discrimination against whites.” I think these guys are getting their news from MSNBC. God sure keeps his sunlight from their thoughts. But this is typical of Democrats and the drive-by media. When the truth does not work for them, they conjure up some lies and blend it with some fake news to keep their daily soap opera rolling.

By the way, I wondered what had happened to the cocky know-it-all George Will. He talked his way right out of Fox News right after he left the Republican Party. Donald Trump heard he was gone and fired out a twitter:

“George Will, one of the most overrated political pundits (who lost his way long ago), has left the Republican Party. He's made many bad calls”

I figured Will out a while ago. I had thought his brain got so big that it created head trauma. Instead if you can imagine the Will caricature with an enlarged head—that is really the problem. His head has gotten so big that he has a hard time getting into most rooms and it has impinged on the size of his brain (scrunched it to become a mini brain) to the point that an average Green Giant Pea now exceeds the diameter of his cranium. Who knows how long Will will be able to rant anti-Trump hate sounds from a brain that is less than the size of a pea?

OK, enough of the ad hominem attacks from me. But then again is we think about it, all of the Trump attacks are ad hominem and the press, even the great George Will never complains when Trump is attacked.

God knew the country was at stake

Though the Constitution Party, the Green Party, and the Libertarian Party, and other parties had their own sponsored candidates in the General Election, the importance of this election was well understood by ordinary citizens. Our country was at stake. I expected that many from these parties would vote against the status quo to make America great again. Trump had the only message that resonated with the American people.

I happen to be a lifelong Democrat who has been sick of the Democrat Party for at least the last thirty years. I have similar sentiments for the apologetic corrupt anti-American press. At first it seemed unintentional. Now I see it as part of a plan to indoctrinate the American people into believing that socialism and communism and Marxist principles are better than American values.

For America to remain strong, the Democrats and Hillary Clinton needed to be defeated. All citizens were needed for us to make this happen and we did it. God helped us all see his light and we did it.

Congratulations are in order for Donald Trump who is still a new guy in a tough political scenario. Despite his lack of funding and lack of support, he was able to overtake all the Republicans, including the whiners and the RINOs and the long-time establishment elites. Trump beat them all. They were ready to take every dollar their donors would give them to buy their support. Trump did not need much but he did put up his own bucks and he outsmarted them all and he won the biggest deal of his life.

On the way to the win, even Michael Moore said that the Convention really helped the Republicans and the Trump Candidacy, which after a year of Never-Trumpers, must still be tracked separately.

How about that great 2016 Republican Convention and the first-class rebuttals to the status quo anti-American speeches during Hillary's convention week? It was heartening to see the Republican campaign rubbing a little Trump moxie onto the major coronation that was supposed to take place at the end of July in 2016.

The reluctant Hillary endorsement by Bernie Sanders and the Debbie Wasserman Schultz firing showed that the Democrats were the Party of chicanery, deceit, and downright cheating. God always knew it but now all Americans know it too. It is nauseating how far to the dark side of the Force; Democratic leadership has gone. Why can we not, despite all our searching, find an honest Democratic Leader who really loves America?

Was it not a wonderful sight for the Trump family to participate in the convention and the campaign for the good of America? It was a pleasure hearing from Melania, Tiffany, Donald Jr., Eric, and Ivanka. What talent! What a family? Even Ronald Reagan had detractors in his family. Why does Trump's family think he is OK? Maybe because he is!

Why does God think Trump is OK? Maybe he is. But, he surely is not perfect. Who is?

Please allow a digression for a brief discussion of family talent and how families such as the Trump family can do great things together.

America has great potential. It's in there!

My father was one of five Kelly brothers – Ed, Pat, Joe, Mike, & Phil. They were born from about 1910 to 1925. They were all high-school basketball greats in the 1930's and 1940's. Later in their twenties, they played up and down the Wilkes-Barre Wyoming Valley and won their share of many great games against other organized teams. Nobody sat on the bench. There were only five Kelly brothers and the bench was always cold.

The Kelly brothers reminded me of the five talent laden Trumps at the convention. It was overwhelming. There was nobody warming the Trump bench because they were all out winning the game—just like the Kelly boys.

As an American worried about America, I am appreciative for God encouraging the Donald Trump candidacy and for lending the Five Trumps to the people of the United States during his ever so important campaign for America. Again, it is both heartwarming and very refreshing. It is just one of many reasons why Trump won the presidency and why God's favor still rests upon him.

We need every one of the Trump soldiers, especially their leader, who thankfully has become our president. There is so much corruption, mostly hate-filled biased media speech. And, so, Mr.

Trump, Mike Pence, and the whole Trump team could not afford to have anybody out of the contest for too long.

The Trump campaign expected bad stuff to continue--low blows, untruths, unkind assaults, and whatever vile actions the establishment elites, the Democrats, and the corrupt media, undeserving of being called the "fourth estate" choose to unleash. The press chose not to represent America but instead represented the lowest of life's== in the Democratic Party and they all loved creating fake news.

So, in the final analysis of why God helped Donald Trump win the presidency, it was because God knew only HE could marshal together all the Trumps, Mike Pence, the Trump campaign team, and we the people at home. God and then Donald Trump needed everybody to continue the fight against the forces of the dark side.

It was very important. Trump not only needed them all, with God's help, he got all the Trumps, Mike Pence, the Trump campaign team, and all of us at home. We continue to this day to fight against the forces of the dark side, the Obama resistance, and the corrupt Justice Department.

Believers did not believe the fake news. Their purpose was deceit. The truth has always been a foreign notion to the Hillary people. When Donald Trump won, all Americans won. My sincere thanks to the Trumps for taking on the rot in the Washington DC Swamp area of America to bring America and Americans a big victory.

I still have my smile. Nobody can wipe it away.

Chapter 5 It Is Too Bad the US Does Not Have an Honest Press!

Having fired so many people on the Apprentice, Donald Trump knew the media in the US did not consist of a bunch of choir boys. He found that it was worse than he imagined. It was as if the Deep State had arisen from the depths of the dismal swamp of Washington just to torment him because Hillary, their favorite, had lost.

Because he is a smart man, he must have seen the cabal of his political enemies – foremost the men who have led the Federal Bureau of Investigation, the National Security Agency, and the Central Intelligence Agency – as a cryptocracy that was and somehow even with him as the boss, still operates under the cover of the founders' constitutionally established government. Yet, they continue to engage in an immense conspiracy, a dark force seeking to destroy him. Though his supporters do not the flummery, there are too many Americans who do.

Trump and the bulk of his supporters and God for sure see the FBI's lawmen as subversive crooks and the CIA's spooks as Nazi stormtroopers. All the worst that he can imagine, they have already done to him and anybody in his campaign or his family that they can get close enough to torment.

He rightfully believes that they have tapped his phones, placed spies in his midst, and sabotaged him since well before his inauguration. And, of course they are all in cahoots with a corrupt press; and, more dangerously, they are seemingly joined by their love of the most honest man in the world, Robert S. Mueller III, the FBI director from 2001 to 2013. Now Mueller is the special counsel overseeing the criminal investigations of Trump and his cohorts. He is a man who has been given the power to take apart the Trump presidency and perhaps put him in jail ala Martha Stewart.

While I wake up smiling that the President still is on duty, working on my behalf, he wakes up knowing there are those who would love to eliminate him from earth if they could. I am so glad that Donald Trump is a smart and strong man.

Do we have a Fourth Estate today?

The intellectuals of the 18th and 19th centuries, especially Edmund Burke, gave us the notion of Fourth Estate (the press and all other media) as a civil watchdog to keep an eye on those in power. It is very clear from the writing of Thomas Paine and others, who pointed out and also acted upon the idea, that we may have just cause to overthrow the state if it is seen to be no longer acting in our interests. This is not trivial. For its own reasons, the press in the US has abdicated its role as the Fourth Estate. The natives are not yet restless enough to overthrow the government but some think we were pretty close during Obama Times.

The founders were not thinking "hunting," when they explicitly added the Second Amendment to the Bill of Right. Their reasoning is what really drives Americans to actively defend the second amendment. Though hunting with rifles is important, it is not hunting that is the root cause of the drive by patriotic Americans to protect the founders' intention of second Amendment.

There is the possibility and perhaps there is even a likelihood that at some time in the future, scoundrels would take over the government and would need to be dealt a blow that only an armed citizenry could deliver. Has that already happened? We may be inclined to ask this when we see all the formal dishonesty and deceit in the media and in the Democratic Party.

The media today from all we can see, would be on the side of the scoundrels so it may not be as easy to defend as the founder's envisioned. In their worst day scenario, the founders would never have envisioned the Fourth Estate going bad on America. Finding that the very scoundrels who have been driving our country to perdition are also trying as hard as they can to take our guns away, make this notion ever more frightening and real. This is just another of many reasons why Trump was elected.

Today, governments such as ours that make the claim to be acting in the "public interest" must face daily scrutiny of their actions. This is a necessary duty of an alert public in a democratic republic. The government must be called to account when overstepping the bounds of what citizens will support, or when taking actions that are clearly not in our interests. Today the press, unfortunately is in cahoots with the Democratic Party.

There was a time when the public could rely on journalists and the news media to do the Fourth Estate stuff on our behalf. This separation between the people and the state becomes more important when the economic interests of the powerful establishment elites so frequently dominate society.

In our modern world, the interest of "the nation," can be deduced to be no more than the collective interest of those who wield political and economic power. That of course in 2016 gave rise to the silent revolution that put Donald Trump in office. We continue to experience this today as residue of the prior administration operating as the deep state as they have been interfering with a full and clean transition of power. Some worry that the voice of the people has been all but snuffed out by the powerful. The people are mad as hell and are not going to take it anymore. Donald Trump's presidency is proof of that.

Today, the state is the executive branch of the ruling class. And, more and more these "rulers," have stopped believing in a government of the people, by the people, and for the people. Former president Obama claimed to have been a Constitutional Law Professor. Yet he attacked the Constitution daily by taking many unlawful actions of which most are aware.

Remnants of his administration continue their attempts to assault The Constitution, the one document that gives the people all of the rights in America. This is another big reason why Trump got elected. We the people are no longer willing to settle for a government of the government, by the government and for the government. Unfortunately, for eight years before Trump, it would have been difficult to tell.

The news media – as the tribune of “the people” – has a major role as the Fourth Estate to constantly be on guard and alert to actions of the state, particularly when those actions may harm the interests of citizens. In recent years, the Fourth Estate has mostly been absent, serving as a wing of the Democratic Party. Since the onset of the Trump Administration, the Fourth Estate has actually disappeared. President Trump nonetheless gets his messages out by talking on social media directly to the people. He will do so with or without an honest press.

It would be nice if the press and the corrupt Democratic Party were not joined at the hip today. But for a portion of Fox News and National Radio programs, and of course for the President's Tweets, and shows such as Rush Limbaugh, Sean Hannity, Laura Ingraham, and Michael Savage, there would be no truth available in America today. Though the Fourth Estate for over 200 years was vital to the interests of American citizens, somehow, we have been able to do fine without them from Trump's inauguration in 2017.

Because our foes are Donald Trump's foes, while the Trump and Pence campaign gained momentum before its victory in November 2016, emboldened Trump haters on both sides of the political spectrum – the Bush supporters and Clinton Supporters—got more vicious. In response, the people of America, aligned with the values brought forth in the Trump campaign fought back because there simply was no room to lose this battle against the dark forces, who for their own selfish interests were determined to keep the country weak. And so, we have yet another reason for the Trump victory.

From the moment the TEA Party was born, and even now that the TEA is not as visible, Americans have been unwilling to take it anymore. While wishing and hoping that the official establishment would find its way and begin to represent the people in the way that got them elected, Donald Trump gave us a true hope that we could do it without the establishment.

Trump helped Americans once again feel that America is God's Country or as President Reagan would call it, a Shining City upon a Hill. The times from the recent past when there were glimmers from empty promises that were never fulfilled are over. Americans demanded and got a responsive government as promised by Donald Trump and Mike Pence. Yes, this too is a big reason why Trump got elected. Too bad our Congress has not gotten that full message yet. There may be some weeping and gnashing of teeth as RINOS Never Trumpers take off for home after the 2018 elections. It is not nice to withhold support from President Trump.

It is the reason why so many of us joined with Donald Trump and the Trump family and the Trump campaign to get rid of the wretched establishment swamp. With Trump's clear and refreshing messages about making America great again, we became his loyal supporters. We elected Trump because we trust him.

We continue to believe that Donald Trump will keep his word as have presidents of the past such as John Fitzgerald Kennedy and Ronald Wilson Reagan. I can still see the Five Trumps playing on the first team at the convention, all believing in the Trump candidacy and in America and Americans. When it was America's turn to believe in the whole Trump family, we elected Donald J. Trump as our president. We are still smiling.

We the people have simply gotten sick of everything being for the Republican big shots. We are tired of the establishment elites such as the George Bushes, Jeb Bush, Carl Rove, Brit Hume, the US Chamber of Commerce, and the many donors who think they can buy America simply by buying its weak, whiny, and wimpy politicians.

Meanwhile we see the Democrats of today brewing up one falsehood after another for the corrupt press to spread on an unwary accepting public that is too full of low information voters. Their objective right from the beginning has been to finish off the Trump team by telling enough lies that the people would finally believe them and acquiesce. They underrated those of us that see through their chicanery.

This will not happen this time! Democrat constituents saw the vile of the dishonest Democratic Party leaders and Hillary Clinton when they destroyed Bernie Sanders in a conspiracy of lies and double-dealing. More and more Democrats left the Party to vote for Donald Trump in primaries across the country and then, they stuck with Trump as the only salvation for the country right through the general election to today. That's why Trump got elected. Now we have to find some fresh honest Republicans to replace those Democrats in Congress as well as a number of stodgy swamp Republicans.

A small establishment elite had been running the Republican Party for far too long. They rigged the game against the people and were accustomed to things going their way. The beauty of the Trump election was that these RINOs got caught flat-footed when their old tricks and their "ram it quietly down their throats," tactics simply did not work on Americans this time.

Why? It was because Donald Trump, the antitheses of the establishment had already entered the arena, and he proceeded to knock the elites over one by one. Along the way he convinced the majority of Americans in a majority of the states that he was the real deal. And, so, we elected him President. The Trump honesty continues to be refreshing despite him being under attack by the most dishonest political class in US history.

The rise of Trump was nothing less than a tidal wave. In their deluded minds, the establishment actually thought they could steal the nomination from Donald Trump and that their strategy would work just the same as it did against Ron Paul in 2012. But Trump has a constituency, which includes you and yours truly. That would not stand for it. And, so, he got elected in 2016 as a people's favorite.

I am reminded of Japanese Naval Marshal General Isoroku Yamamoto who, after Pearl Harbor confessed: "I fear all we have done is to awaken a sleeping giant and filled him with a terrible resolve." The attempts of the establishment elites to derail the Trump Campaign were thwarted by a fed-up public. We wanted Trump, period! We the public had gotten very sick of Republican broken promises. We lost trust in the Party elite leaders and the donors who no longer care about the people. And, with firm resolve we won the presidential election for Donald Trump. We know we need to stock the Congress with Trump supporters in 2018 and that will happen.

Yes, Donald Trump did manage to awaken the silent majority of Americans who previously either did not care or simply did not bother to vote. Some in the past just shrugged their shoulders and accepted that the system was rigged and that all of the little men in the world—all of us insignificant citizens of America, could not make an impact under any circumstances. Trump is the difference. The people rose up and are taking our power back. That is why Trump got elected.

Trump has always been for the non-establishment brand of citizen, who simply depends on honest representatives to keep our democratic republic operating smoothly. He is the perfect alternative to candidates who do the bidding of Bush's and Clintons and their ilk, who somehow have become richer and richer while the ordinary people have become poorer and poorer. Donald J. Trump became the perfect alternative for leaders who had permitted America herself to be turned into a debt-ridden shadow of its once great self.

Unfortunately, because of elitist propaganda from both Republicans and Democrat members of the establishment, in full cahoots with the corrupt main stream media, the fourth estate, full of journalists that have forgotten American History, Americans chose a quiet revolt. We hear it all and are disgusted and we are lined up against those still willing and eager to put forth their hatred against Donald Trump like as if it is the common opinion. We voted for Donald Trump against all those lies and the daily soap opera and we are ready to support him against all odds. .

Chapter 6 Was Hillary a Good Candidate?

The pundits all have an opinion

God gave humans a sense of humor and so we are enjoying already the humor in the chapter title: Was Hillary a Good Candidate? We probably do not have to spend a whole chapter on that question because Hillary's main opponent for 20120 has already weighed in.

Former Vice President Joe Biden still isn't done with Hillary Clinton and the 2016 election and that may be why he refuses to rule out running again for president in 2020. In a recent interview at a hedge fund conference in Las Vegas, Biden said this of Clinton: "I never thought she was a great candidate. I thought I was a great candidate." Well, how about that.

I received a Hillary and Trump email

Here is some more political humor. Enjoy! Sometimes when writing, figuring out how to get the essence of one's message out on the table, it takes a lot of thought. In a book describing God's continuing support for Donald Trump, I felt that it would be OK to position Donald Trump as the anti-Obama and that would let me get the most of my gems about Hillary that have been waiting idly on my desk.

After living eight years with a former president who acted like America was a land of guano, and Americans were the ones producing the guano, my intention when I began this chapter was to highlight Trump as the answer to Obama to describe part of the rationale in which many Americans listened to their Lord and Savior Jesus Christ and helped Make Mr. Trump our President.

Other than being a continuation of the Obama administration, I did not think that I had to highlight specific reasons for why Hillary's policies or her past were needed for people to reject her and choose Trump. Then, I got this email and I knew I had to include it in this book.

I received it after I had basically finished the outline and the first draft of this book. It was intended to be serious, thought provoking and somewhat funny and it is all of those plus it also sheds additional light on why Trump is where he is. There is also some dad humor there also as Hillary cannot know she is this bad.

The scenario depicted is a bar in which Hillary and Trump are having a conversation and they are trying to determine which scandal it was, in which the media were really tearing Hillary apart.

Enjoy!

I know Trump supporters will get the message. Following this email, this chapter will end. I hope you enjoy the time away from serious discourse.

Donald Trump and Hillary Clinton are in a bar. Donald leans over, and with a smile on his face, says,

"The media are really tearing you apart for That Scandal."

Hillary: "You mean my lying about Benghazi?"

Trump: "No, the other one."

Hillary: "You mean the massive voter fraud?"

Trump: "No, the other one."

Hillary: "You mean the military not getting their votes counted?"

Trump: "No, the other one."

Hillary: "Using my secret private server with classified material to Hide my Activities?"

Trump: "No, the other one."

Hillary: "The NSA monitoring our phone calls, emails and everything Else?"

Trump: "No, the other one."

Hillary: "Using the Clinton Foundation as a cover for tax evasion, hiring cronies, and taking bribes from foreign countries?"

Trump: "No, the other one."

Hillary: "You mean the drones being operated in our own country without The Benefit of the law?"

Trump: "No, the other one."

Hillary: "Giving 123 Technologies $300 Million, and right afterward it Declared Bankruptcy and was sold to the Chinese?"

Trump: "No, the other one."

Hillary: "You mean arming the Muslim Brotherhood and hiring them in the White House?"

Trump: "No, the other one."

Hillary: "Whitewater, Watergate committee, Vince Foster, commodity Deals?"

Trump: "No the other one."

Hillary: "The IRS targeting conservatives?"

Trump: "No the other one."

Hillary: "Turning Libya into chaos?"

Trump: "No the other one."

Hillary: "Trashing Mubarak, one of our few Muslim friends?"

Trump: "No the other one."

Hillary: "Turning our backs on Israel?"

Trump: "No the other one."

Hillary: "The joke Iran Nuke deal? "

Trump: "No the other one."

Hillary: "Leaving Iraq in chaos? "

Trump: "No, the other one."

Hillary: "The DOJ spying on the press?"

Trump: "No, the other one."

Hillary: "You mean former HHS Secretary Sibelius shaking down health insurance Executives?"

Trump: "No, the other one."

Hillary: "Giving our cronies in SOLYNDRA $500 MILLION DOLLARS and 3 Months Later they declared bankruptcy and then the Chinese bought it?"

Trump: "No, the other one."

Hillary: "The NSA monitoring citizens'?"

Trump: "No, the other one."

Hillary: "The State Department interfering with an Inspector General Investigation on departmental sexual misconduct?"

Trump: "No, the other one."

Hillary: "Me, The IRS, Clapper and Holder all lying to Congress?"

Trump: "No, the other one."

Hillary: "Threats to all of Bill's former mistresses to keep them quiet"

Trump: "No, the other one."

Hillary: "You mean taking the $145,000,000.00 from Putin for the Uranium Bribe?"

Trump: "No the other one."

Hillary: "I give up! ... Oh wait, I think I've got it! When I stole the White House furniture, silverware and China when Bill left Office?"

Trump: "THAT'S IT! I almost forgot about that one".

Everything above is true. Yet she still got a ton of Democratic votes. It causes one to ask, "Could there be that uninformed people in this country?"

And that besides the prayers and the help of God is "Why Mr. Trump Got Elected!"

Chapter 7 What is Donald Trump?

Right or wrong about Trump?

I have such a wonderful group of email friends that I never feel alone. Over the years, we of like mind have gotten to know each other well so that rather than just ideological arguments which go no place, we send each other emails that help substantiate the conservative position. I, of course am a conservative Democrat like JFK, and more than likely I am the only Democrat on their email list.

If you, like me are a Trump guy, even if you cannot come up with a catch-phrase to tell it all in a quick sound bite, think of this next email as a continuous sound bite designed to tell us all we need about What is a Donald Trump.

Like other emails that I have used to help us all know “How God selected and supported Donald Trump in 2016,” this one is also right on the mark. I did not write any of this email unless it is a comment in brackets []. It was sent early in 2016. With people thinking like this, it is easier to see how, with the help of God, Trump pulled off his great victory. I hope you like it. It is just what the doctor ordered for a Trump supporter’s smile.

 Subj: OMG- a 'Keeper'- "What Is Donald Trump?" (So well written & FUNNY too!)

I did a search on ‘truthorfiction.com’ (I don’t trust Snopes.) for the author Don Frederick & there’s one by that name who writes for Bloomberg, but I could not find this particular column. --- It’s great, whether he wrote it or not.

The author (Don Frederick) is the political correspondent for Bloomberg and he wrote extensively about Trump even before he was elected, and he did it with facts and more facts.

Here goes:

"Who is Donald Trump?" The better question may be, "What is Donald Trump?"

The answer: A giant middle finger from average Americans to the political and media establishment.

Some Trump supporters are like the 60s white girls who dated black guys just to annoy their parents. But most Trump supporters have simply had it with the Demosocialists and the "Republicans in Name Only."

They know there isn't a dime's worth of difference between Hillary Rodham and Jeb Bush, and only a few cents worth between Rodham and the other GOP candidates.

Ben Carson is not an "establishment" candidate, but the Clinton machine would pulverize Carson, and the somewhat rebellious Ted Cruz will (justifiably so) be tied up with natural born citizen lawsuits (as might Marco Rubio).

The Trump supporters figure they may as well have some fun tossing Molotov cocktails at Wall Street and Georgetown while they watch the nation collapse. Besides, lightning might strike, Trump might get elected, and he might actually fix a few things. Stranger things have happened. (The nation elected a Marxist in 2008 and Bruce Jenner now wears designer dresses.)

Millions of conservatives are justifiably furious. They gave the Republicans control of the House in 2010 and control of the Senate in 2014 and have seen them govern no differently than Nancy Pelosi and Harry Reid. Yet those same voters are supposed to trust the GOP in 2016? Why? Trump did not come from out of nowhere. His candidacy was created by the last six years of Republican failures.

No reasonable person can believe that any of the establishment candidates will slash federal spending, rein in the Federal Reserve, cut burdensome business regulations, reform the tax code, or eliminate useless federal departments (the Departments of Education, Housing and Urban Development, Energy, etc.). Even Ronald Reagan was unable to eliminate the Department of Education. (Of course, getting shot at tends to make a person less of a risk-taker.)

No reasonable person can believe that any of the nation's major problems will be solved by Rodham, Bush, and the other dishers of donkey fazoo now eagerly eating corn in Iowa and pancakes in New Hampshire.

Many Americans, and especially Trump supporters, have had it with:

- ✓ Anyone named Bush
- ✓ Anyone named Clinton
- ✓ Anyone who's held political office
- ✓ Political correctness
- ✓ Illegal immigration
- ✓ Massive unemployment
- ✓ Phony "official" unemployment and inflation figures
- ✓ Welfare waste and fraud
- ✓ People faking disabilities to go on the dole
- ✓ VA waiting lists
- ✓ TSA airport groping
- ✓ ObamaCare
- ✓ The Federal Reserve's money-printing schemes
- ✓ Wall Street crooks like Jon Corzine
- ✓ Michelle Obama's vacations
- ✓ Michelle Obama's food police
- ✓ Barack Obama's golf
- ✓ Barack Obama's arrogant and condescending lectures
- ✓ Barack Obama's criticism/hatred of America
- ✓ Valerie Jarrett
- ✓ "Holiday trees"
- ✓ Hollywood hypocrites
- ✓ Global warming nonsense
- ✓ Cop killers

- ✓ Gun confiscation threats
- ✓ Stagnant wages
- ✓ Chevy Volts
- ✓ Clock boy
- ✓ Pajama boy
- ✓ Mattress girl
- ✓ Boys in girls' bathrooms
- ✓ Whiny, spoiled college students who can't even place the Civil War in the correct century

...and that's just the short list.

Trump supporters believe that no Democrat wants to address these issues, and that few Republicans have the courage to address these issues. They certainly know that none of the establishment candidates are better than barely listening to them, and Trump is their way of saying, "Screw you, Hillary Rodham Rove Bush!"

The more the talking head political pundits insult the Trump supporters, the more supporters he gains. (The only pundits who seem to understand what is going on are Democrats Doug Schoen and Pat Caddell and Republican John LeBoutillier. All the others argue that the voters will eventually "come to their senses" and support an establishment candidate.)

But America does not need a tune-up at the same old garage. It needs a new engine installed by experts--and neither Rodham nor Bush are mechanics with the skills or experience to install it. Hillary Rodham is not a mechanic; she merely manages a garage her philandering husband abandoned. Jeb Bush is not a mechanic; he merely inherited a garage.

Granted, Trump is also not a mechanic, but he knows where to find the best ones to work in his garage. He won't hire his brother-in-law or someone to whom he owes a favor; he will hire someone who lives and breathes cars.

"How dare they revolt!" the "elites" are bellowing. Well, the citizens are daring to revolt, and the RINOs had better get used to it. "But Trump will hand the election to Clinton!" That is what the Karl Rove-types want people to believe, just as the leftist media eagerly shoved "Maverick" McCain down GOP throats in 2008--knowing he would lose to Obama.

But even if Trump loses and Rodham wins, she would not be dramatically different than Bush or most of his fellow candidates. They would be nothing more than caretakers, not working to restore America's greatness but merely presiding over the collapse of a massively in-debt nation. A nation can perhaps survive open borders; a nation can perhaps survive a generous welfare system. But no nation can survive both--and there is little evidence that the establishment candidates of either party understand that. The United States cannot forever continue on the path it is on. At some point it will be destroyed by its debt.

Yes, Trump speaks like a bull wandering through a china shop, but the truth is that the borders do need to be sealed; we cannot afford to feed, house, and clothe 200,000 Syrian immigrants for decades (even if we get inordinately lucky and none of them are ISIS infiltrators or Syed Farook wannabes); the world is at war with radical Islamists; all the world's glaciers are not melting; and Rosie O'Donnell is a fat pig.

Is Trump the perfect candidate? Of course not. Neither was Ronald Reagan. But unless we close our borders and restrict immigration, all the other issues are irrelevant. One terrorist blowing up a bridge or a tunnel could kill thousands. One jihadist poisoning a city's water supply could kill tens of thousands. One electromagnetic pulse attack from a single Iranian nuclear device could kill tens of millions. Faced with those possibilities, most Americans probably don't care that Trump relied on eminent domain to grab up a final quarter acre of property for a hotel, or that he boils the blood of the Muslim Brotherhood thugs running the Council on American-Islamic Relations.

While Attorney General Loretta Lynch's greatest fear is someone giving a Muslim a dirty look, most Americans are more worried about being gunned down at a shopping mall by a crazed lunatic who treats his prayer mat better than his three wives and who thinks 72 virgins are waiting for him in paradise.

The establishment is frightened to death that Trump will win, but not because they believe he will harm the nation. They are afraid he will upset their taxpayer-subsidized apple carts. While Obama threatens to veto legislation that spends too little, they worry that Trump will veto legislation that spends too much.

You can be certain that if an establishment candidate wins in November 2016, his or her cabinet positions will be filled with the same people we've seen before. The washed-up has-beens of the Clinton and Bush administrations will be back in charge. The hacks from Goldman Sachs will continue to call the shots. Whether it is Bush's Karl Rove or Clinton's John Podesta who makes the decisions in the White House will matter little. If the establishment wins, America loses.

Chapter 8 Trump and Immigration

Concerns and Solutions

Moving to the immigration front and leaving the prior email behind for us all to chew upon some more, let's start a new chapter by squeezing in a few items regarding immigration in bullet form and then a little text. You have seen all these notions but perhaps not all together at once. This is the immigration issue in a nutshell followed by the solution for the 60 million foreign interlopers in the US today.

Trump gets it. And that alone on immigration is enough reason for why God helped him get elected.

What do Americans want?

- ✓ No amnesty
- ✓ No citizenship
- ✓ No voting ever!
- ✓ Jobs first for Americans!
- ✓ No employer cost advantage for hiring interlopers
- ✓ No freebies? No free rides for illegal foreigners
- ✓ Mandatory registration -- no shadows -- we must know who they are
- ✓ Americans get all the breaks

- ✓ No more misguided love"
- ✓ Eliminate need for terms illegal and undocumented
- ✓ No need for DACA or sanctuary cities
- ✓ Programs that pay for themselves
- ✓ Interlopers from other countries pay back all benefits
- ✓ Solution for anchor citizens

What do interlopers want?

- ✓ A nice safe place to live
- ✓ No fear and no hiding
- ✓ No more shadow living
- ✓ Opportunity to have a job
- ✓ Opportunity to keep jobs held
- ✓ No wage less than minimum wage
- ✓ A life without persecution or danger

Few think this problem is solvable: I do! I created the Pay-to-Go Plan and the Resident Visa Plan, both of which are described in detail in books of the same name.

Before I wrote the Resident Visa Plan and the Pay-to-Go plan books a few years ago, I wrote a book called the Lifetime Guest Plan, which contained most of the precepts necessary to solve the problem of 60 million interlopers in America. However, the term lifetime guest was not appreciated by most conservatives. So, I rethought it and came up with two plans

The Resident Visa Plan

- ✓ Stern and sane, pro-American
- ✓ Compassionate plan
- ✓ Serves both citizens and interlopers alike
- ✓ No more shadows
- ✓ No fear and no hiding
- ✓ Americans are no longer last
- ✓ Americans no longer pick up the tab

The US has 60 million interlopers in residence

- ✓ From around the world.
- ✓ Not necessarily bad people.
- ✓ Take US education & healthcare & never give back
- ✓ Take US jobs – work cheap
- ✓ Taxpayers pay for Congress's munificence
- ✓ Republicans & US business: want cheap wages
- ✓ Democrats: want new Dem voters
- ✓ Congress does nothing; POTUS--BHO made it worse
- ✓ If Congress wanted a cheap solution: Cost of Resident Visa Program is zero
- ✓ Program turns worthy dependent illegal foreign nationals into paying lifetime guests.
- ✓ Those not granted guest status registration are deported. No country would want them.
- ✓ Guests don't have any intrinsic US rights
- ✓ They get only specific privileges as granted by citizens.
- ✓ Resident Visa Holders must always behave well.

"A guest is a person who is invited to visit the home or office or country or take part in a function organized by another."

This plan was built for the 60 million interlopers already in America; not designed to permit future interlopers. Why do we have 60 million interlopers in the US today?

FYI: An interloper is a person who becomes involved in a place or situation where they are not wanted or are considered not to belong. Interloper is not a synonym for undocumented immigrant, but most illegal aliens can rightfully be called interlopers. Another way of saying this is that Interlopers are uninvited guests.

My message about interlopers is not one of guilt for Americans but it is one that hopefully will help those who know they are interlopers to get on the right track. It is time to begin to love America and do what is necessary to get on the right side of American law.

No more shadows; No more freebies; No more costs for Taxpayers

Can a Trump plan help Americans?

- ✓ Plan must register all interlopers.
- ✓ All applicants get vetted.
- ✓ Appeal may be initiated by registrant or US official
- ✓ Aspirant provides address and demographics
- ✓ Fingerprints, retina scans etc.
- ✓ $200 first time; $100 annual fee for renewal

Immigration is not the only issue that helped Trump get elected. However, it was very big in Americans choosing Trump over those who were OK stiffing America and Americans.

Chapter 9 God's New Items for Trump's 2020 Agenda

Donald Trump has a huge agenda and if he were to accomplish all the items on his agenda, there might be nothing left for any new president to accomplish. For now, however, though Trump is very concerned about Illegal immigration and the wall, and Seniors not losing benefits, and millennials being able to make it in America, this is not where his attention is focused. I have a feeling God wants him to spend some time in this area especially to help seniors.

I am counting that one day as he gets through the other stuff that is on his list, the President will look at the few platform points that God and I ask that he consider as they are very important also and offering the solutions outline in this chapter in abbreviated form is very important in bringing Mr. Trump a much easier 2020 victory. He still won't get there without God's help but it will be lots easier if he adopts a few new platform points described in this chapter. A lot of good people will be helped and some will even be freed.

My format will be to be present each issue by area of concern and then offer the specific solution which is part of a unique platform to help parts of America not necessarily on the radar today. The issues and solutions will be presented one by one in the following three topical areas:

#1—Illegal Immigration – 60 million illegal residents.

#2—Student Debt Crisis Wipe Out All student Debt Now!.

#3—Social Security’s Cost-of-Living Fraud – Boost Social Security Now!

I would like the President to make a pledge to encourage legislation to help address all three issues. Let’s discuss them one by one, starting with Illegal Immigration.

Illegal Immigration

In February 2004, then Arizona Senator John McCain recognized via Border Patrol reports that nearly four million people crossed our borders “illegally” each year following the Reagan wholesale amnesty in 1986. Nonetheless, the fraudulent press insists that the total count of illegal immigrants residing in the United States is just eleven million, a mathematical impossibility if Border Patrol figures are to be believed. And of these millions of foreigners, countless amounts receive welfare while, contrary to popular mythology, very few actually work in agriculture.

There may be as many as 60 million and perhaps more illegal foreign nationals living in the shadows of the United States today. While some individuals in this group may contribute to our society, on balance this is outweighed by the group’s overall negative effect on our resources, whether they be drained by government assistance, lost employment opportunities for American citizens, or criminal offenses. It is amazing how effective the fake-ID business is in turning illegal aliens into fake citizens who are thus enabled to enjoy American rights and privileges, including cash income tax returns and welfare.

According to the 2011 GAO report entitled "Criminal Alien Statistics," the cost of crimes by illegal foreign nationals is $8.1 billion per year, and that's without even considering the incomprehensibly larger emotional toll this takes on families whose priceless loved ones can never be replaced.

The Congress must introduce two pieces of legislation that will solve this problem of illegal residents in the shadows once and for all. Besides many other benefits, it stands to save the U.S. over $1 Trillion per year in addition to major reductions in crime. The two solutions are known simply as the pay-to-go program and the resident visa program. Let's first look at Pay-to-Go

Pay-to-Go

It costs taxpayers $30,000 per year on the average, per illegal alien in America. Each illegal resident and their dependent children, who signs up for Pay to Go, on the way back to the home country, will receive a one-time $20,000 stipend from the US government plus the individual expenses necessary to get back to the home country. With a cost of $30,000 per year to support unwelcome interlopers, the taxpayer savings begins year one and continues at $30,000 per year forever. Not a bad deal for Americans. In fact it is a great deal.

The program therefore quietly accommodates family reunification in the home country. A family of five for example, could do quite well back home after receiving $100,000 (5 X $20,000) in stipends from Uncle Sam. Reuniting families in their own countries is a good idea for them and for America. The savings in welfare means there is no cost in year one and in year 2, the savings equal $30,000 for each person who "goes." back home, never to return.

Resident Visa

Those who do not want to leave the US can sign up, be vetted, and eventually be approved for the Resident Visa. The visa will cost $200.00 to cover vetting in year one and it will be renewable every year thereafter for $100.00 To get a Resident Visa. Each year, resident visa holders must come back to a post office or other government facility to pay and renew their visa.

A former interloper would agree to all stipulations after registering. Stipulations would include full initial vetting; onsite renewal vetting; keep existing jobs; new jobs for Americans first; no voting; no citizenship; no welfare and no freebies of any kind. Everybody is not automatically approved. After vetting, those not approved for the resident visa program may use the Pay-to-Go program to aid in their relocation.

As the program would entail 100% participation from illegal residents, estimates are as high as $500 billion per year cost savings in total for those who choose to go or for those who choose to stay using the no-welfare resident visa. Another $500 billion will be reclaimed over time for lost wages. Additionally, if we can figure a way for countries to reclaim their criminals, there is another $8.1 billion to be recovered.

Once the program is in effect, there would be no more illegal aliens in the country. Resident Visa holders would be legal and so there would be no shadows. There would be no need for DACA and no need for Sanctuary cities Let me repeat that. All issues with DACA would be over and Sanctuary Cities would be a thing of the past because there would be no shadows and no illegal interlopers.

Two additional programs are the part of the three platform points that I would now like to introduce. Like the resident alien plans, no other candidate for public office includes these great programs in their platforms. Americans are going to love these.

These two new programs offer the promise of a positive effect on the health of the economy and both will contribute to improving it for American citizens of all ages to live well in this country. The first is about wiping out all student debt and the second is about offering Social Security recipients increased benefits to make up for fraudulent cost of living increases based on an intentionally fraudulent consumer price index.

Student Debt is Huge

If we look at the $1.48 Trillion dollars in student loan debt that more and more young adults simply cannot repay, some have asked: “Why do our young people no longer matter?” Do they matter?

We live in an age when everybody seems to have a reason to pick on millennials. They would not loan a “spoiled” millennial “ingrate” as much as a dollar for a cup of coffee.

Whether millennials are deserving of the bad rap or not, they represent a lost generation of our society. For the sake of all of America, they need to be invited back in. We all have student loan debtors in our families – sons, daughters, nephews, nieces, even grandparents and parents when we consider cosigners.

I plan to offer legislation when first elected to make sure we solve this nasty American problem. There have been many other debt reliefs in our history but none that could deliver such an immediate benefit to so many actual Americans all at once. The upside would be overwhelming, a joint humanitarian return and a major economic return far greater than any bailout in history. Let's consider.

A Bailout is a Bailout?

Many of us remember bailouts of the past from 2007 onward. We had bank bailouts, auto company bailouts, TARP bailouts and many other unnamed bailouts. Did any of these help your family? Of course not. Bailout fever began right before Obama became President and continued. The President managed all of the money—trillions.

He chose not to give a dime to help student loan debt but spared no expense showering the degenerate financial institutions that owned his candidacy with gold.

Mike Collins, a Forbes Magazine contributor whose expertise focuses on manufacturing and government policy \(not the former beloved magistrate of Wilkes-Barre who shares the same name\) had this to say:

“Most people think that the big bank bailout was the $700 billion that the treasury department used to save the banks during the financial crash in September of 2008. But this is a long way from the truth because the bailout [ten years later] is still ongoing.

The Special Inspector General for TARP’s summary of the bailout says that the total commitment of government is $16.8 trillion dollars with the $4.6 trillion already paid out. The [same] banks are now larger and still too big to fail. But it isn’t just the government bailout money that tells the story of the bailout. This is a story about lies, cheating, and a multi-faceted corruption, which was often criminal.”

Like most elements of his presidency, Obama made the situation worse when he commandeered the student loans from Sallie Mae and other lenders. The government now pulls in more than $50 billion a year from charging high interest rates to student borrowers. The Obama Student Loan Company charged 6.8% as a student interest rates. The CBO estimates that the interest rate on these loans could quickly be reduced from 6.8 percent to 5.3 percent if Obama had not earmarked the profit from the backs of students to subsidize Obamacare.

Not only were millennials duped into huge college loans when they were so young that Clearasil was one of their major expenses, they were duped into believing Obama was in their corner.

I believe these student victims deserve a break. They are now adults. Some stuck with huge cosign tabs are grandparents on Social security. The government actually garnishes their SSR to pay back the Obama loans.

The federal government is putting up $16.8 trillion dollars as of 2018 to big banks, and other nameless faces receiving bailouts. We still do not know who is getting our money. Yet students who are still being victimized by usury were preyed on as 17-year-olds by admissions counsellors for an all-but worthless college education leading to no job. If given the choice would you be helping the big banks or our own kids?

What do the people think about Student Debt

Four in ten Americans believe that President Trump's administration should forgive all federal student debt in order to help stimulate the economy, according to a reasonably new survey revealed in 2017. As time goes by as more Americans realize we are excluding a full generation of Americans in our economy, this number will increase from a simple majority to an overwhelming endorsement of wiping out this scurrilous unfair debt as soon as possible. We should bring these 48 million students back into the American way of life as soon as possible.

The largest share blame for the student debt crisis lies with the promises made by over-zealous admissions counsellors convincing kids to sign up for $100,000 loans. No American can want a full generation of other Americans to be left behind in the Trump economy. We need this debt eradicated now and to install safeguards so that seventeen-year-olds in the future are never asked again to sign up for a life in debtor's prison.

According to MoneyTips.com, attitudes have changed from a time when Americans thought college students should be punished for making bad choices to today, when we could use 48 million new spenders in our economy. They would be unleashed into a world of productivity if no longer burdened with massive debt. Many of us know first-hand the consequences of this debt burden. Though millennials may not be the most gracious in asking for help, they are Americans, not DACA immigrants, and they need our help now.

The raw economic fact regardless of your philosophical preference is that spenders with the greatest potential to spend today are not spending at all in real numbers because of student debt. They are not getting married. They are not having families and they are not buying homes. We must solve this scourge on our country so that this generation can produce other generations of Americans.

Our children are not MS-13 members in disguise; there are our kids. American kids. They were snookered to join academia for what they were deceived into believing was an indispensable college degree by depraved loan sharks. Let's give them a full chance. It costs a university nothing when their students with huge loans fail. Please let that sink in.

Let me review the plight of young American college attendees and graduates. Barely out of adolescence, these young Americans were wheedled into commitments based on fraudulent promises by admissions counselors and financial institutions. It was unfair to pit experienced loan sharks against adolescent teenagers. The students were further damned by a paid-for Congress, whose lobbyists insisted that these select few with student debt, distinct from all of the others in America, had no opportunity for any relief in the bankruptcy courts.

Non-college graduates with a trillion dollars in credit card debt are still able to obtain full relief from the courts. Why did Congress exclude these former teenagers, who clearly have been the biggest victims of loan-sharking organized racketeering ever seen in America? Why?

I am pledging today to solve this problem as soon as I can. I am ready to take action. I hope you all agree. Let's help these young Americans before they are lost forever.

Young teenagers were told all through high school that the best ticket for a successful life is a college education. Is this true today? Their salaries often lag behind even those of non-college educated professionals such as plumbers, electricians, computer repair personnel, operating engineers, and more. Because of their reliance on these deliberately false misrepresentations, they now owe an approximate average of $50,000 in student debt while their admissions counsellors and loan sharks revel in riches, in their Mercedes, BMW's, and third vacation home on the lake.

Unscrupulous malefactors with self-interested agendas persuaded America's teenagers, many so young they still had Acne vulgaris, to dig themselves huge financial holes with no escape. Universities are at least partly responsible for their unfulfilled promises. Don't you think? We must also consider what liability they may share in compensating this lost generation where one out of six student borrowers must default today, a figure that only increases with time.

Removing this debt may not fully compensate for the bad hand they were dealt, but its consequent increase in economic activity will benefit all of us. It will boost the US economy beyond expectations. We are already giving bailouts of $17 billion to obscenely rich people in corporate shadows. Right now, we need a mere 10% of that to pay for the write-off of student debt without hurting taxpayers and without putting any banks under. The savings over three years, for example from the resident visa program alone pays off all the student debt that exists today. Why support illegal aliens when we can help Americans?

One last point. It helps to recall that President Obama increased the National Debt by $9.1 Trillion in just eight years, hoping to assure that illegal aliens had all the resources they needed to take as many American jobs as they could. This is six times the amount of debt owed by young Americans. Obama nearly doubled our debt. And what do we have to show for that? As is typical for the Obama years, the answer is frankly... nothing. By contrast, debt relief for our young Americans will be visibly positive in its impact.

So, let's say Congress wipes out all student debt because it is the fair thing to do. How do we prevent this from every happening again. For this, I thank my great friend, Dennis Grimes whose solution combines some skin in the game for Academic Institutions to the mix and thus assures that no student will ever carry debt unless the student is successful with a job in their field of study. Here is how the new lon system would work.

Nobody gets a loan unless the college or university agrees to take all of the risk of the loan. If the student is successful, she or he will pay reasonable amounts on a monthly basis. If the student is jobless, since the university vouched for the student, the school will owe all of the debt. Academic institutions are smart. They will stop lending quickly to students with very little prospects of being able to pay the loan back. If students do not maintain acceptable averages, they will be expelled, and the university will pay their balance. If they want to go to college in the future, it will be cash only. What do you think?

A Rigged System

I am confident that President Trump would re-enfranchising America's youngest generation of adults by eradicating student debt and pay the balance via savings no longer spent subsidizing illegal immigrants.

In his own words, regarding recent graduates: "They go, and they work, and they take loans, and they're borrowed up, and they can't breathe, and they get through college and the worst thing is, they go through that whole process and they don't have any job." Trump has it right. He sees how this rigged system has snuffed out the optimism of a bright generation that now gives way to cynicism and despair.

If I am elected as your Senator, I will help enact legislation that eradicates all Student Debt, effective immediately.

Boost Social Security Now

Social Security is no longer publicly discussed by our duplicitous media despite the fact that seniors' issues need the spotlight now more than ever. The media derided the implied greed of SSR recipients who received a whopping two percent cost of living raise to kick off 2018, as if oblivious to the fact that the inflation rate for 2017 was nearly 11%. Not 2%, but 11%.

No wonder seniors are struggling when their cost for purchases goes up 11% and their COLA to make up for that is a mere 2%. How do I know that and you don't?

There are several ways Americans can investigate how much government lies cost them each year. The government purposely underestimates the cost of living to deprive our elderly of a commensurate actual increase in earned benefits. One such method for you to use is to subscribe to the Chapwood index or you may explore Shadowstats.com.

Seniors unfortunately are running out of whatever financial cushions they may ever have had and their plight today is dire. I encourage you all to research the degree to which government deceptions are resulting in these surreptitious deprivations.

After decades being saturated by our mainstream propaganda rags, it is refreshing to finally see the truth in print. The Chapwood Index reflects the true cost-of-living increase in America. It is updated and released twice a year. There the ruses or mis-directions of the government are not included in its pages. Instead, it truthfully reports the unadjusted actual cost and price fluctuation of the top 500 items on which Americans spend their after-tax dollars in the 50 largest cities in the nation.

It exposes why middle-class Americans—salaried workers who are given routine pay hikes and retirees who depend on annual increases in their corporate pension and Social Security payments—cannot maintain their standard of living. Plainly and simply, the Index shows that their income can't keep up with their expenses and it explains why they increasingly have to turn to the government for entitlements for supplementation.

Mainstream Democrats like Senator Casey and Nancy Pelosi exacerbate the situation by allowing use of even more inequitable methods such as the new chained CPI to help assure that Seniors can languish in poverty as soon as possible.

The problem of lacking transparency on true costs (true inflation) occurs because salary and benefit increases are pegged to the fraudulent Consumer Price Index (CPI), which for more than a century has purported to reflect the fluctuation in prices for a typical “basket of goods” in American cities — but which actually hasn’t done that for more than 30 years

The middle class has seen its purchasing power decline dramatically in the last three decades, forcing more and more people to seek entitlements when their savings are gone. And as long as pay raises and benefit increases are tied to a false CPI, this trend will continue.

In the past, nobody was anxious to throw the proverbial grandma under the bus. Now, believe it or not, hordes of constituencies are lining up to be the first to fleece what should belong to her into the eternal abyss, never to be seen again. The list of offenders includes: Congress, government officials, professors in academia, the “greatest” economic advisors the world has ever known, and dejected stand-alone economists who failed to gain tenure at a university.

This group of elite misfits have formed a diabolical consortium to cheat seniors out of their due cost of living increases promised from the very day the SSR act was passed by Franklin Delano Roosevelt.

As the mainstream Democrats kowtow to cultural elites and financial institutions, turning their backs on the workers and middle-class that defined their constituency for much of the 20th century, it is up to us to pick up the slack and fight for the rights of everyday Americans. When SSR was enacted, the president promised full dollar value throughout the years in order to ensure its passage in 1933. We cannot let this be undermined by the likes of Senator Casey and his allies under Chuck Schumer and Nancy Pelosi.

Many Americans are concerned that the Social Security program itself may not be able to sustain itself while others see the government cheating on the cost of living increases (CPI) thereby predetermining a life of squalor for seniors.

All successful societies throughout the ages, have maintained respect and dignity for their elders. Not only is cheating seniors a moral failure, it is a sign of a civilization entering an era of decay.

While seniors are losing their homes and many, for want of bread and milk, are on the verge of heading to the proverbial poorhouse or worse—the clutches of the Grim Reaper, Congress in 2018 pretended to care, giving a 2% raise, but then quickly snatched it right back in the dead of night via a Medicare Part B premium increase. This additional Medicare Part B charge for necessary health services for seniors was excluded from the cost of living calculations.

Thus, to pay Medicare part B, seniors are forced to use their “generous” 2% raises there, rather than to offset the costs brought forth from inflation in 2017 for which the 2% was intended. Since the real inflationary cost increases were closer to 11%, that means that instead of 9% that seniors were to endure, they accrued a full load of 11% in price increases. It's easy to understand why this constant drainage of resources is unsustainable for a senior citizen.

How did we reach this point?

Early in the administration of disgraced former President Bill Clinton, an economist named Michael Boskin, and Alan Greenspan, Chairman of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, devised a scheme that would allow for market basket “substitutions” to artificially lower the cost of living and result in lower payments to our oldest Americans. Prior to their involvement, the consumer price index (CPI) was measured using the cost of a fixed basket of goods, a fairly simple and straightforward concept.

The identical basket of goods would be priced at prevailing market costs for each period, and the period-to-period change in the cost of that market basket represented the rate of inflation in terms of maintaining a constant standard of living. That was self-evidently fair and reasonable, and predictably resulted in seniors receiving annual COLA increases in tandem with the prices of goods actually increasing.

But Boskin and Alan Greenspan argued that when one item in the basket, for instance steak, became too expensive, the consumer would substitute hamburger for the steak, and that the inflation measure should reflect the costs tied to buying hamburger rather than the steak. Eventually, it became OK for the bureaucrats to replace hamburger with less expensive tuna and eventually because the protein value was the same, cat tuna replaced regular tuna in the market basket.

To further obscure the true cost of living, other items were selectively removed from the basket when the prices were high and then reinserted when the prices were low.

Many people have been familiar with this ruse. For example, a 1970s economic commentator named Barry Ritholtz joked that Greenspan's core inflation metric can more accurately be described as "inflation ex-inflation," meaning inflation after all of the inflation has been excluded. This demonstrates that the deception of seniors has been intentional, and it continues with a new notion called the chained CPI that will cost seniors even more.

The fact is that government has deceitfully stolen right from the pockets of our beloved seniors by denying them a fair cost of living increase. Some have even suggested that the government believes a natural limit exists on the criticism this could engender because over time, many of the complaints will be silenced by their deaths. Charming.

Walter J. Williams, an American blessing who operates the Shadowstats site has demonstrated that seniors have been stiffed by much more than just 125% and in fact should be receiving more than 4 times what their dollars were worth in 1980. That's $450 instead of $100.00. Any senior would love to have even a small proportion of that loss back.

I hope I have convinced you all that seniors have been ripped off and are being ripped off financially by their government. Congress is the real culprit.

So, what do I recommend for now? A gradual remedy. Since it would be difficult to give seniors the proper increase immediately needed to offset this quagmire caused by government malfeasance, my recommendation would be to approach it gradually, in a way that seniors would be somewhat pleased, and be able to live out their golden years in a more dignified manner.

For the next four years, the COLA boost that I'd recommend would be 15% above the real inflation rate. After four consecutive years, that should be sufficient to remove seniors from the on-deck circle they currently occupy directly outside the homeless shelter. That's all it would take.

Thank you for your attention on these important matters.

In conclusion, I must again express my gratitude for your consideration and any support as we work together to make America even greater.

God bless America and help us all make her better!

Chapter 10 Trump Worked Hard to Become President

Wants to be best president ever

I waited a little bit, until this chapter, before I told you in Donald John Trump's words Why God helped Trump get elected. It is no secret. Trump got elected because he is Trump. Nobody else could have pulled it off. Nobody else! He told us he would be our next president and like many others, I believed him.

Seventeen Republicans and four Democrats for sure did not believe him. The low information crowd in America did not believe him either but then again, they got all their information from the Democratic Party and the low-ratings, corrupt, fake-news media. Most never heard the truth once during Trump's 1.5 year campaign for office.

Yet, Trump told us all, believers and non-believers that he would be our next president, how he would become our president, and why he would be our next president. He first told it to us all on June 16, 2015, and he did not waiver off point for over a year and a half. Then he walked away with the presidency despite the polls and despite the lies of Democratic leaders who are still shell-shocked.

Trump struck a chord with the American people. The Obama administration was one lie after another. Eventually all these little time bombs went off and those of us paying attention knew we needed something big to get America back on track. Donald Trump supersized his campaign and he promised to supersize America when elected. He promised quite simply to Make America Great Again. His message said it all. It was clear and energizing and it made Americans feel good that somebody who cared was finally going to run America.

You can take any of Trump's 186 primary rallies or his 137 general election rallies across the United States and his message was the same as it was on June 16, 2015 when he walked down the elevator at Trump Towers with Melania to get in the presidential foray. Make America Great Again with facts and plans to match.

Big crowds always turned out to support Trump, but Team Clinton didn't get the picture. Disaffected Democrats who felt isolated from their own party and fed up with gridlock did march to the polls, but they did not march to Hillary's few major rallies. They were tired of the way things worked or did not work so they joined Republicans who found Trump distasteful but preferable to Clinton. They wanted help, not hope. My two sisters-in-law, who had always been stalwart Democrats before 2016, joined their ranks; so, I knew the movement to Trump was very real.

In all fairness, Hillary Clinton was out on the trail a lot herself but mostly in the primary season and mostly for functional / organizational meetings and fundraisers. Hillary had learned the art of speaking through the years and she got a lot of practice before she officially threw her hat in the ring.

For example, between April 2013 and March 2015, she gave 91 paid speeches averaging $235,304.35 apiece, for a total of $21,648,000.

Three weeks after delivering the last speech, on April 12, 2015, she entered the race.

As long as there was a nice check available, Clinton would speak to just about anyone who was willing to pay the toll, including a scrap metal and recycling conference in Las Vegas, the automobile dealer's association in New Orleans and the National Association of Convenience Stores in Atlanta.

She was called on her exorbitant speaking fees on a number of occasions, but she argued that her fees from speeches at universities went to the Clinton Foundation and not directly into her pocket. Despite the apparent assurances, students at the University of Nevada Las Vegas protested her $225,000 payload as the university was hiking their tuition.

When she entered the race for the primary, she was very active on the trail, but she was not as active and alive as the general election progressed. She did have rallies but not many and they were not big. Donald Trump noticed and commented: "I have to say, we have rallies like this and we have seven, eight, nine, ten thousand routinely," he boasted back in September at a stop in North Carolina. "Hillary goes out for rallies and yesterday I think she had 200 people, maybe 300." That's Why Trump Got Elected.

Wikipedia did a fine job of capturing all the Trump rallies and the attendance. Before we look at Trump's kickoff speech in the next chapter from right after he came down the escalator at Trump Towers, check out this table. It shows all the energy that Donald Trump exerted by traveling across the country, addressing massive sell-out "free" rallies. Look at the states. In the eleventh hour while Hillary was mostly MIA in key states, Trump was there at the right time. Remember when you look at this list, among other things, it is "Why Trump Got Elected!"

A year before this book, I had written a book in 2017 entitled, "Why Trump Got Elected." It is a fine book and it is basically still current. In that book, I listed all of the venues for the almost Trump rallies. It showed the actual city, state, venue and the event population. Here is a sample of what it looked like:

76 Why Trump Got Elected!

Primary rallies (June 2015–June 2016)

Date of Rally	City	State	Venue	Est. Vistors
Wed., June 17, 2015	Manchester	NH	Manchester Community College	300
Sat., July 11, 2015	Phoenix	AZ	Phoenix Convention Center	15,000
Tues., July 21, 2015	Sun City	SC	Magnolia Hall	500
Sat., July 25, 2015	Oskaloosa	IA	Oskaloosa High School	1,000
Fri., August 14, 2015	Hampton	NH	Winnacunnet High School	3,000
Fri., August 21, 2015	Mobile	AL	Ladd–Peebles Stadium	15,000-30,000
Tues., August 25, 2015	Dubuque	IA	Grand River Center	3,000
Thur., August 27, 2015	Greenville	SC	TD Convention Center	1,400
Fri., August 28, 2015	Norwood	MA	Home of Ernie Boch, Jr.	"1,500-2,000"
Mon., Sept. 14, 2015	Dallas	TX	American Airlines Center	15,000
Tues., Sept. 15, 2015	Los Angeles	CA	USS Iowa]]	1,000+
Fri., Sept. 25, 2015	Oklahoma City	OK	Oklahoma State Fair	15,000
Wed. Sept. 30, 2015	Keene	NH	Keene High School	3,500

Think about all the hard work preparing for and speaking at all those great rallies. That plus the hand of God is “Why Trump Got Elected!”

Chapter 11 Trump's Trip Down the Escalator

Donald Trump's Presidential Announcement

June 16, 2015

Think about a guy, mostly unscripted talking from the heart to the American people. Then, as you read his speech, along with all Trump supporters, you too will know Why God helped Trump get Elected!

Here we go right below:

Wow. Whoa. That is some group of people. Thousands.
So nice, thank you very much. That's really nice. Thank you. It's great to be at Trump Tower. It's great to be in a wonderful city, New York. And it's an honor to have everybody here. This is beyond anybody's expectations. There's been no crowd like this.

And, I can tell, some of the candidates, they went in. They didn't know the air-conditioner didn't work. They sweated like dogs.

They didn't know the room was too big, because they didn't have anybody there. How are they going to beat ISIS? I don't think it's gonna happen.

Our country is in serious trouble. We don't have victories anymore. We used to have victories, but we don't have them. When was the last time anybody saw us beating, let's say, China in a trade deal? They kill us. I beat China all the time. All the time.

When did we beat Japan at anything? They send their cars over by the millions, and what do we do? When was the last time you saw a Chevrolet in Tokyo? It doesn't exist, folks. They beat us all the time.

When do we beat Mexico at the border? They're laughing at us, at our stupidity. And now they are beating us economically. They are not our friend, believe me. But they're killing us economically.

The U.S. has become a dumping ground for everybody else's problems.

Thank you. It's true, and these are the best and the finest. When Mexico sends its people, they're not sending their best. They're not sending you. They're not sending you. They're sending people that have lots of problems, and they're bringing those problems with us. They're bringing drugs. They're bringing crime. They're rapists. And some, I assume, are good people.

[By reflecting the sentiments of many Americans, candidate Trump quickly gained support from normal Americans and he kept it through today with all the Russia crap. That's Why Trump Got Elected.]

But I speak to border guards and they tell us what we're getting. And it only makes common sense. It only makes common sense. They're sending us not the right people.

It's coming from more than Mexico. It's coming from all over South and Latin America, and it's coming probably—probably— from the Middle East. But we don't know. Because we have no protection and we have no competence, we don't know what's happening. And it's got to stop, and it's got to stop fast.

Islamic terrorism is eating up large portions of the Middle East. They've become rich. I'm in competition with them.

They just built a hotel in Syria. Can you believe this? They built a hotel. When I have to build a hotel, I pay interest. They don't have to pay interest, because they took the oil that, when we left Iraq, I said we should've taken.

So now ISIS has the oil, and what they don't have, Iran has. And in 19— and I will tell you this, and I said it very strongly, years ago, I said— and I love the military, and I want to have the strongest military that we've ever had, and we need it more now than ever. But I said, "Don't hit Iraq," because you're going to totally destabilize the Middle East. Iran is going to take over the Middle East, Iran and somebody else will get the oil, and it turned out that Iran is now taking over Iraq. Think of it. Iran is taking over Iraq, and they're taking it over big league.

We spent $2 trillion in Iraq, $2 trillion. We lost thousands of lives, thousands in Iraq. We have wounded soldiers, who I love, I love — they're great — all over the place, thousands and thousands of wounded soldiers.

And we have nothing. We can't even go there. We have nothing. And every time we give Iraq equipment, the first time a bullet goes off in the air, they leave it.

Last week, I read 2,300 Humvees— these are big vehicles— were left behind for the enemy. 2,000? You would say maybe two, maybe four? 2,300 sophisticated vehicles, they ran, and the enemy took them.

Last quarter, it was just announced our gross domestic product— a sign of strength, right? But not for us. It was below zero. Whoever heard of this? It's never below zero.

Our labor participation rate was the worst since 1978. But think of it, GDP below zero, horrible labor participation rate.

[In this first of hundreds of campaign speeches, Mr. Trump set the theme for his presidency. He focused on the sins of the last administration He portrayed Obama and Company as being inept on the foreign policy as well as the domestic policy. He is very convincing. Before he had even once said, "Let's make America great again," he noted how bad things had become with a guy who cared little about America at the helm. The people were convinced. Americans want America to be great—not also-rans. That's "Why Trump Got Elected!"]

And our real unemployment is anywhere from 18 to 20 percent. Don't believe the 5.6. Don't believe it.

That's right. A lot of people up there can't get jobs. They can't get jobs, because there are no jobs, because China has our jobs and Mexico has our jobs. They all have jobs.

But the real number, the real number is anywhere from 18 to 19 and maybe even 21 percent, and nobody talks about it, because it's a statistic that's full of nonsense.

Our enemies are getting stronger and stronger by the way, and we as a country are getting weaker. Even our nuclear arsenal doesn't work.

It came out recently they have equipment that is 30 years old. They don't know if it worked. And I thought it was horrible when it was broadcast on television, because boy, does that send signals to Putin and all of the other people that look at us and they say, "That is a group of people, and that is a nation that truly has no clue. They don't know what they're doing. They don't know what they're doing."

We have a disaster called the big lie: Obamacare. Obamacare.

Yesterday, it came out that costs are going for people up 29, 39, 49, and even 55 percent, and deductibles are through the roof. You have to be hit by a tractor, literally, a tractor, to use it, because the deductibles are so high, it's virtually useless. It's virtually useless. It is a disaster.

And remember the $5 billion website? $5 billion we spent on a website, and to this day it doesn't work. A $5 billion website.

I have so many websites, I have them all over the place. I hire people, they do a website. It costs me [nowhere close to $5 billion for just one website.]

Well, you need somebody, because politicians are all talk, no action. Nothing's gonna get done. They will not bring us— believe me— to the promised land. They will not.

As an example, I've been on the circuit making speeches, and I hear my fellow Republicans. And they're wonderful people. I like them. They all want me to support them. They don't know how to bring it about. They come up to my office. I'm meeting with three of them in the next week. And they don't know— "Are you running? Are you not running? Could we have your support? What do we do? How do we do it?"

I like them. And I hear their speeches. And they don't talk jobs and they don't talk China. When was the last time you heard China is killing us? They're devaluing their currency to a level that you wouldn't believe. It makes it impossible for our companies to compete, impossible. They're killing us.

But you don't hear that from anybody else. You don't hear it from anybody else. And I watch the speeches.

I watch the speeches of these people, and they say the sun will rise, the moon will set, all sorts of wonderful things will happen. And people are saying, "What's going on? I just want a job. Just get me a job. I don't need the rhetoric. I want a job."

And that's what's happening. And it's going to get worse, because remember, Obamacare really kicks in in '16, 2016. Obama is going to be out playing golf. He might be on one of my courses. I would invite him, I actually would say. I have the best courses in the world, so I'd say, you what, if he wants to— I have one right next to the White House, right on the Potomac. If he'd like to play, that's fine.

In fact, I'd love him to leave early and play, that would be a very good thing.

But Obamacare kicks in in 2016. Really big league. It is going to be amazingly destructive. Doctors are quitting. I have a friend who's a doctor, and he said to me the other day, "Donald, I never saw anything like it. I have more accountants than I have nurses. It's a disaster. My patients are beside themselves. They had a plan that was good. They have no plan now."

We have to repeal Obamacare, and it can be— and— and it can be replaced with something much better for everybody. Let it be for everybody. But much better and much less expensive for people and for the government. And we can do it.

[Trump knows the crooked polls that praised Obamacare are bogus. That's "Why Trump Got Elected!"]

So, I've watched the politicians. I've dealt with them all my life. If you can't make a good deal with a politician, then there's something wrong with you. You're certainly not very good. And that's what we have representing us. They will never make America great again. They don't even have a chance. They're controlled fully— they're controlled fully by the lobbyists, by the donors, and by the special interests, fully.

[The people know that their representatives are representing themselves and That's Why Trump Got Elected.]

Yes, they control them. Hey, I have lobbyists. I have to tell you. I have lobbyists that can produce anything for me. They're great. But you know what? It won't happen. It won't happen. Because we have to stop doing things for some people, but for this country, it's destroying our country. We have to stop, and it has to stop now.

Now, our country needs— our country needs a truly great leader, and we need a truly great leader now. We need a leader that wrote “The Art of the Deal.”

We need a leader that can bring back our jobs, can bring back our manufacturing, can bring back our military, can take care of our vets. Our vets have been abandoned.

[Donald Trump connected with the people by speaking the peoples' language and by focusing on things that Americans know are not right. That's “Why Donald Trump Got Elected!”]

And we also need a cheerleader.

You know, when President Obama was elected, I said, “Well, the one thing, I think he'll do well. I think he'll be a great cheerleader for the country. I think he'd be a great spirit.”

He was vibrant. He was young. I really thought that he would be a great cheerleader.

He's not a leader. That's true. You're right about that.

But he wasn't a cheerleader either. He's actually a negative force. He's been a negative force. He wasn't a cheerleader; he was the opposite.

We need somebody that can take the brand of the United States and make it great again. It's not great again.

We need— we need somebody— we need somebody that literally will take this country and make it great again. We can do that.

And, I will tell you, I love my life. I have a wonderful family. They're saying, “Dad, you're going to do something that's going to be so tough.”

You know, all of my life, I've heard that a truly successful person, a really, really successful person and even modestly successful cannot run for public office. Just can't happen. And yet that's the kind of mindset that you need to make this country great again.

So, ladies and gentlemen...I am officially running... for president of the United States, and we are going to make our country great again.

It can happen. Our country has tremendous potential. We have tremendous people.

We have people that aren't working. We have people that have no incentive to work. But they're going to have incentive to work, because the greatest social program is a job. And they'll be proud, and they'll love it, and they'll make much more than they would've ever made, and they'll be— they'll be doing so well, and we're going to be thriving as a country, thriving. It can happen.

I will be the greatest jobs president that God ever created. I tell you that.

I'll bring back our jobs from China, from Mexico, from Japan, from so many places. I'll bring back our jobs, and I'll bring back our money.

Right now, think of this: We owe China $1.3 trillion. We owe Japan more than that. So, they come in, they take our jobs, they take our money, and then they loan us back the money, and we pay them in interest, and then the dollar goes up so their deal's even better.

How stupid are our leaders? How stupid are these politicians to allow this to happen? How stupid are they?

I'm going to tell you— thank you. I'm going to tell you a couple of stories about trade, because I'm totally against the trade bill for a number of reasons.

Number one, the people negotiating don't have a clue. Our president doesn't have a clue. He's a bad negotiator.

He's the one that did Bergdahl. We get Bergdahl, they get five killer terrorists that everybody wanted over there.

We get Bergdahl. We get a traitor. We get a no-good traitor, and they get the five people that they wanted for years, and those people are now back on the battlefield trying to kill us. That's the negotiator we have.

Take a look at the deal he's making with Iran. He makes that deal, Israel maybe won't exist very long. It's a disaster, and we have to protect Israel. But...

So, we need people—I'm a free trader. But the problem with free trade is you need really talented people to negotiate for you. If you don't have talented people, if you don't have great leadership, if you don't have people that know business, not just a political hack that got the job because he made a contribution to a campaign, which is the way all jobs, just about, are gotten, free trade terrible.

Free trade can be wonderful if you have smart people, but we have people that are stupid. We have people that aren't smart. And we have people that are controlled by special interests. And it's just not going to work.

So, here's a couple of stories happened recently. A friend of mine is a great manufacturer. And, you know, China comes over and they dump all their stuff, and I buy it. I buy it, because, frankly, I have an obligation to buy it, because they devalue their currency so brilliantly, they just did it recently, and nobody thought they could do it again.

But with all our problems with Russia, with all our problems with everything—everything, they got away with it again. And it's impossible for our people here to compete.

So, I want to tell you this story. A friend of mine who's a great manufacturer, calls me up a few weeks ago. He's very upset. I said, "What's your problem?"

He said, "You know, I make great product."
And I said, "I know. I know that because I buy the product."

He said, "I can't get it into China. They won't accept it. I sent a boat over and they actually sent it back. They talked about environmental, they talked about all sorts of crap that had nothing to do with it."

I said, "Oh, wait a minute, that's terrible. Does anyone know this?"

He said, "Yeah, they do it all the time with other people."

I said, "They send it back?"

"Yeah. So, I finally got it over there and they charged me a big tariff. They're not supposed to be doing that. I told them."

Now, they do charge you tariff on trucks, when we send trucks and other things over there.

Ask Boeing. They wanted Boeing's secrets. They wanted their patents and all their secrets before they agreed to buy planes from Boeing.

Hey, I'm not saying they're stupid. I like China. I sell apartments for—I just sold an apartment for $15 million to somebody from China. Am I supposed to dislike them? I own a big chunk of the Bank of America Building at 1290 Avenue of the Americas, that I got from China in a war. Very valuable.

I love China. The biggest bank in the world is from China. You know where their United States headquarters is located? In this building, in Trump Tower. I love China. People say, “Oh, you don't like China?”

No, I love them. But their leaders are much smarter than our leaders, and we can't sustain ourselves with that. There's too much— it's like—it's like take the New England Patriots and Tom Brady and have them play your high school football team. That's the difference between China's leaders and our leaders.

They are ripping us. We are rebuilding China. We're rebuilding many countries. China, you go there now, roads, bridges, schools, you never saw anything like it. They have bridges that make the George Washington Bridge look like small potatoes. And they're all over the place.

We have all the cards, but we don't know how to use them. We don't even know that we have the cards, because our leaders don't understand the game. We could turn off that spigot by charging them tax until they behave properly.

[Trump talked to the people like it was a fireside chat or a chat with a neighbor. He makes his points. Normal people got the message. It was easy to get. “That's Why Trump Got Elected!”]

Now they're going militarily. They're building a military island in the middle of the South China sea. A military island. Now, our country could never do that because we'd have to get environmental clearance, and the environmentalist wouldn't let our country— we would never build in an ocean. They built it in about one year, this massive military port.

They're building up their military to a point that is very scary. You have a problem with ISIS. You have a bigger problem with China.

And, in my opinion, the new China, believe it or not, in terms of trade, is Mexico.

So, this man tells me about the manufacturing. I say, “That’s a terrible story. I hate to hear it.”

But I have another one, Ford.

So, Mexico takes a company, a car company that was going to build in Tennessee, rips it out. Everybody thought the deal was dead. Reported it in the Wall Street Journal recently. Everybody thought it was a done deal. It’s going in and that’s going to be it, going into Tennessee. Great state, great people.

All of a sudden, at the last moment, this big car manufacturer, foreign, announces they’re not going to Tennessee. They’re gonna spend their $1 billion in Mexico instead. Not good.

Now, Ford announces a few weeks ago that Ford is going to build a $2.5 billion car and truck and parts manufacturing plant in Mexico. $2.5 billion, it’s going to be one of the largest in the world. Ford. Good company.

So I announced that I’m running for president. I would...

... one of the early things I would do, probably before I even got in—and I wouldn’t even use— you know, I have— I know the smartest negotiators in the world. I know the good ones. I know the bad ones. I know the overrated ones.

You get a lot of them that are overrated. They’re not good. They think they are. They get good stories, because the newspapers get buffaloed. But they’re not good.

But I know the negotiators in the world, and I put them one for each country. Believe me, folks. We will do very, very well, very, very well.

But I wouldn’t even waste my time with this one. I would call up the head of Ford, who I know. If I was president, I’d say, “Congratulations. I understand that you’re building a nice $2.5 billion car factory in Mexico and that you’re going to take your cars and sell them to the United States zero tax, just flow them across the border.”

And you say to yourself, “How does that help us,” right? “How does that help us? Where is that good”? It’s not.

So, I would say, “Congratulations. That’s the good news. Let me give you the bad news. Every car and every truck and every part manufactured in this plant that comes across the border, we’re going to charge you a 35-percent tax, and that tax is going to be paid simultaneously with the transaction, and that's it.

Now, here's what is going to happen. If it's not me in the position, it's one of these politicians that we're running against, you know, the 400 people that we're (inaudible). And here's what's going to happen. They're not so stupid. They know it's not a good thing, and they may even be upset by it. But then they're going to get a call from the donors or probably from the lobbyist for Ford and say, "You can't do that to Ford, because Ford takes care of me and I take care of you, and you can't do that to Ford."

And guess what? No problem. They're going to build in Mexico. They're going to take away thousands of jobs. It's very bad for us.

So, under President Trump, here's what would happen:

The head of Ford will call me back, I would say within an hour after I told them the bad news. But it could be he'd want to be cool, and he'll wait until the next day. You know, they want to be a little cool.

And he'll say, "Please, please, please." He'll beg for a little while, and I'll say, "No interest." Then he'll call all sorts of political people, and I'll say, "Sorry, fellas. No interest," because I don't need anybody's money. It's nice. I don't need anybody's money.

I'm using my own money. I'm not using the lobbyists. I'm not using donors. I don't care. I'm really rich. I (inaudible).

And by the way, I'm not even saying that's the kind of mindset, that's the kind of thinking you need for this country.

So— because we got to make the country rich.

It sounds crass. Somebody said, "Oh, that's crass." It's not crass.

We got $18 trillion in debt. We got nothing but problems.

We got a military that needs equipment all over the place. We got nuclear weapons that are obsolete.

We've got nothing. We've got Social Security that's going to be destroyed if somebody like me doesn't bring money into the country. All these other people want to cut the hell out of it. I'm not going to cut it at all; I'm going to bring money in, and we're going to save it.

[The people got to see how smart Donald Trump is on real life and what a great businessman he is through these stories and more and more believed that he would get the job done for Americans if only he could get the politicians in the swamp out of the way. The people loved Trump's promise to drain the swamp, That, ladies and gentlemen is Why Trump Got Elected!]

But here's what's going to happen:

After I'm called by 30 friends of mine who contributed to different campaigns, after I'm called by all of the special interests and by the—the donors and by the lobbyists— and they have zero chance at convincing me, zero— I'll get a call the next day from the head of Ford. He'll say, "Please reconsider," I'll say no. He'll say, "Mr. President, we've decided to move the plant back to the United States, and we're not going to build it in Mexico." That's it. They have no choice. They have no choice.

There are hundreds of things like that. I'll give you another example.

Saudi Arabia, they make $1 billion a day. $1 billion a day. I love the Saudis. Many are in this building. They make a billion dollars a day. Whenever they have problems, we send over the ships. We say "we're gonna protect." What are we doing? They've got nothing but money.

If the right person asked them, they'd pay a fortune. They wouldn't be there except for us.

And believe me, you look at the border with Yemen. You remember Obama a year ago, Yemen was a great victory. Two weeks later, the place was blown up. Everybody got out— and they kept our equipment.

They always keep our equipment. We ought to send used equipment, right? They always keep our equipment. We ought to send some real junk, because, frankly, it would be— we ought to send our surplus. We're always losing this gorgeous brand-new stuff.

But look at that border with Saudi Arabia. Do you really think that these people are interested in Yemen? Saudi Arabia without us is gone. They're gone.

And I'm the one that made all of the right predictions about Iraq. You know, all of these politicians that I'm running against now— it's so nice to say I'm running as opposed to if I run, if I run. I'm running.

But all of these politicians that I'm running against now, they're trying to disassociate. I mean, you looked at Bush, it took him five days to answer the question on Iraq. He couldn't answer the question. He didn't know. I said, "Is he intelligent?"

Then I looked at Rubio. He was unable to answer the question, is Iraq a good thing or bad thing? He didn't know. He couldn't answer the question.

How are these people gonna lead us? How are we gonna— how are we gonna go back and make it great again? We can't. They don't have a clue. They can't lead us. They can't. They can't even answer simple questions. It was terrible.

But Saudi Arabia is in big, big trouble. Now, thanks to fracking and other things, the oil is all over the place. And I used to say it, there are ships at sea, and this was during the worst crisis, that were loaded up with oil, and the cartel kept the price up, because, again, they were smarter than our leaders. They were smarter than our leaders.

There is so much wealth out there that can make our country so rich again, and therefore make it great again. Because we need money. We're dying. We're dying. We need money. We have to do it. And we need the right people.

So, Ford will come back. They'll all come back. And I will say this, this is going to be an election, in my opinion, that's based on competence.

Somebody said — thank you, darlin'.

Somebody said to me the other day, a reporter, a very nice reporter, "But, Mr. Trump, you're not a nice person."

That's true. But actually I am. I think I am a nice person. People that know me, like me. Does my family like me? I think so, right. Look at my family. I'm proud of my family.

By the way, speaking of my family, Melania, Barron, Kai, Donnie, Don, Vanessa, Tiffany, Ivanka did a great job. Did she do a great job?

Great. Jared, Laura and Eric, I'm very proud of my family. They're a great family.

So, the reporter said to me the other day, "But, Mr. Trump, you're not a nice person. How can you get people to vote for you?"

I said, “I don’t know.” I said, “I think that number one, I am a nice person. I give a lot of money away to charities and other things. I think I’m actually a very nice person.”

But, I said, “This is going to be an election that’s based on competence, because people are tired of these nice people. And they’re tired of being ripped off by everybody in the world. And they’re tired of spending more money on education than any nation in the world per capita, than any nation in the world, and we are 26th in the world, 25 countries are better than us in education. And some of them are like third world countries. But we’re becoming a third world country, because of our infrastructure, our airports, our roads, everything.”

So, one of the things I did, and I said, you know what I’ll do. I’ll do it. Because a lot of people said, “He’ll never run. Number one, he won’t want to give up his lifestyle.”

They’re right about that, but I’m doing it.

Number two, I’m a private company, so nobody knows what I’m worth. And the one thing is that when you run, you have to announce and certify to all sorts of governmental authorities your net worth.

So, I said, “That’s OK.” I’m proud of my net worth. I’ve done an amazing job.

I started off— thank you— I started off in a small office with my father in Brooklyn and Queens, and my father said — and I love my father. I learned so much. He was a great negotiator. I learned so much just sitting at his feet playing with blocks listening to him negotiate with subcontractors. But I learned a lot.

But he used to say, “Donald, don’t go into Manhattan. That’s the big leagues. We don’t know anything about that. Don’t do it.”

I said, “I gotta go into Manhattan. I gotta build those big buildings. I gotta do it, Dad. I’ve gotta do it.”

And after four or five years in Brooklyn, I ventured into Manhattan and did a lot of great deals— the Grand Hyatt Hotel. I was responsible for the convention center on the west side. I did a lot of great deals, and I did them early and young. And now I’m building all over the world, and I love what I’m doing.

But they all said, a lot of the pundits on television, “Well, Donald will never run, and one of the main reasons is he’s private and he’s probably not as successful as everybody thinks.”

So, I said to myself, you know, nobody's ever going to know unless I run, because I'm really proud of my success. I really am.

I've employed—I've employed tens of thousands of people over my lifetime. That means medical. That means education. That means everything.

So, a large accounting firm and my accountants have been working for months, because it's big and complex, and they've put together a statement, a financial statement, just a summary. But everything will be filed eventually with the government, and we don't [use] extensions or anything. We'll be filing it right on time. We don't need anything.

And it was even reported incorrectly yesterday, because they said, "He had assets of $9 billion." So, I said, "No, that's the wrong number. That's the wrong number. Not assets."

So, they put together this. And before I say it, I have to say this. I made it the old-fashioned way. It's real estate. You know, it's real estate.

It's labor, and it's unions—good and some bad—and lots of people that aren't in unions, and it's all over the place and building all over the world.

And I have assets—big accounting firm, one of the most highly respected—9 billion 240 million dollars.

And I have liabilities of about $500 million. That's long-term debt, very low interest rates.

In fact, one of the big banks came to me and said, "Donald, you don't have enough borrowings. Could we loan you $4 billion?" I said, "I don't need it. I don't want it. And I've been there. I don't want it."

But in two seconds, they give me whatever I wanted. So I have a total net worth, and now with the increase, it'll be well-over $10 billion. But here, a total net worth of—net worth, not assets, not—a net worth, after all debt, after all expenses, the greatest assets—Trump Tower, 1290 Avenue of the Americas, Bank of America building in San Francisco, 40 Wall Street, sometimes referred to as the Trump building right opposite the New York—many other places all over the world.

So the total is $8,737,540,00.

Now I'm not doing that...

I'm not doing that to brag, because you know what? I don't have to brag. I don't have to, believe it or not.

I'm doing that to say that that's the kind of thinking our country needs. We need that thinking. We have the opposite thinking.

We have losers. We have losers. We have people that don't have it. We have people that are morally corrupt. We have people that are selling this country down the drain.

So, I put together this statement, and the only reason I'm telling you about it today is because we really do have to get going, because if we have another three or four years—you know, we're at $8 trillion now. We're soon going to be at $20 trillion.

According to the economists—who I'm not big believers in, but, nevertheless, this is what they're saying—that $24 trillion—we're very close—that's the point of no return. $24 trillion. We will be there soon. That's when we become Greece. That's when we become a country that's unsalvageable. And we're gonna be there very soon. We're gonna be there very soon.

So, just to sum up, I would do various things very quickly. I would repeal and replace the big lie, Obamacare.

I would build a great wall, and nobody builds walls better than me, believe me, and I'll build them very inexpensively, I will build a great, great wall on our southern border. And I will have Mexico pay for that wall.

Mark my words.

Nobody would be tougher on ISIS than Donald Trump. Nobody.

I will find — within our military, I will find the General Patton, or I will find General MacArthur, I will find the right guy. I will find the guy that's going to take that military and make it really work. Nobody, nobody will be pushing us around.

I will stop Iran from getting nuclear weapons. And we won't be using a man like Secretary Kerry that has absolutely no concept of negotiation, who's making a horrible and laughable deal, who's just being tapped along as they make weapons right now, and then goes into a bicycle race at 72 years old, and falls and breaks his leg. I won't be doing that. And I promise I will never be in a bicycle race. That I can tell you.

I will immediately terminate President Obama's illegal executive order on immigration, immediately.

Fully support and back up the Second Amendment.

Now, it's very interesting. Today I heard it. Through stupidity, in a very, very hard-core prison, interestingly named Clinton, two vicious murderers, two vicious people escaped, and nobody knows where they are. And a woman was on television this morning, and she said, "You know, Mr. Trump," and she was telling other people, and I actually called her, and she said, "You know, Mr. Trump, I always was against guns. I didn't want guns. And now since this happened"—it's up in the prison area—"my husband and I are finally in agreement, because he wanted the guns. We now have a gun on every table. We're ready to start shooting."

I said, "Very interesting."

So, protect the Second Amendment.

End—end Common Core. Common Core should—it is a disaster. Bush is totally in favor of Common Core. I don't see how he can possibly get the nomination. He's weak on immigration. He's in favor of Common Core. How the hell can you vote for this guy? You just can't do it. We have to end education -- has to be local.

Rebuild the country's infrastructure.

Nobody can do that like me. Believe me. It will be done on time, on budget, way below cost, way below what anyone ever thought.

I look at the roads being built all over the country, and I say I can build those things for one-third. What they do is unbelievable, how bad.

You know, we're building on Pennsylvania Avenue, the Old Post Office, we're converting it into one of the world's great hotels. It's gonna be the best hotel in Washington, D.C. We got it from the General Services Administration in Washington. The Obama administration. We got it. It was the most highly sought after—or one of them, but I think the most highly sought-after project in the history of General Services. We got it. People were shocked, Trump got it.

Well, I got it for two reasons. Number one, we're really good. Number two, we had a really good plan. And I'll add in the third, we had a great financial statement. Because the General Services, who are terrific people, by the way, and talented people, they wanted to do a great job. And they wanted to make sure it got built.

So, we have to rebuild our infrastructure, our bridges, our roadways, our airports. You come into La Guardia Airport, it's like we're in a third world country. You look at the patches and the 40-year-old floor. They throw down asphalt, and they throw.

You look at these airports, we are like a third world country. And I come in from China and I come in from Qatar and I come in from different places, and they have the most incredible airports in the world. You come to back to this country and you have LAX, disaster. You have all of these disastrous airports. We have to rebuild our infrastructure.

Save Medicare, Medicaid and Social Security without cuts. Have to do it.

Get rid of the fraud. Get rid of the waste and abuse, but save it. People have been paying it for years. And now many of these candidates want to cut it. You save it by making the United States, by making us rich again, by taking back all of the money that's being lost.

Renegotiate our foreign trade deals.

Reduce our $18 trillion in debt, because, believe me, we're in a bubble. We have artificially low interest rates. We have a stock market that, frankly, has been good to me, but I still hate to see what's happening. We have a stock market that is so bloated.

Be careful of a bubble because what you've seen in the past might be small potatoes compared to what happens. So be very, very careful.

And strengthen our military and take care of our vets. So, so important.

Sadly, the American dream is dead.

But if I get elected president I will bring it back bigger and better and stronger than ever before, and we will make America great again.

Thank you. Thank you very much.

So, in this speech, Donald Trump showed that he was no dummy. Furthermore, he spoke American, not politician to the many Americans who had been hearing politician-speak for far too many years. Donald Trump gave this speech and over 300-others like it and his tone never changed. Donald Trump loves America and all Americans who love

America love that Donald Trump loves America. That's "Why Donald Trump Got Elected."

Chapter 12 Why Did Anybody Vote for Trump?

Americans could not take our country for granted

From the eyes of many, for eight years of Obama running the ship without a license, the United States was in imminent danger and we needed a comprehensive, yet workable solution to bring us back on the right economic track. America needed to be infused with a positive sense of the future so that even before the Tax Reform in December 2017, we would know things were getting so good that we could put the Apply Inside signs back outside. It's getting better every day. That's "Why Trump Was Elected President!" God helped out a lot but he helped by giving real reasons to vote for Donald Trump and by inspiring Mr. Trump to be himself.

The reason there have been no real middle-class jobs for most of the Obama years, was because the economy was caput. It was not working. Why was it not working? How about not having one businessman on the former president's cabinet to help right the big ship US. It was as if the former president was trying to assure failure.

The prior administration was ideologically driven, and its policies and regulations had made businesses afraid to invest in America. The government was perceived as the chief causative problem for the malaise. Instead of government wanting to help, those in the know, companies were asking for government to please get out of the way.

But, in eight years, the official US would not get out of the way. Instead, it injected itself where it could do the most harm. Some saw their lack of support for America as “that’s all she wrote for the country!” Government philosophies had to change for America to have a chance. Donald Trump was perceived as a breath of fresh air. He was what had been missing—a leader who would paint it all fresh with a new paint brush and great paint to boot—the best paint you could get!

One way to change government philosophies of course, would be for the same people, who created the problem, to change their ways. That rarely happens. Another way to change government philosophies is to change governments. We get to do that at the federal level every two to six years with representatives. Once every four years, we get to change Presidents.

This time, the people decided that the presidency should be handed off to the person that had great prospects for success. I speak of Donald J. Trump, who is now our CEO, whether he is liked or unliked by an unkind press. Americans in 30 of 50 states chose Donald J. Trump and most of us are very pleased that we no longer have to go to a swamp of corruption to hope to move the country forward.

The reason “Why Trump Got Elected!” is because from everything that was out there, only Trump had the guts to fire all the officials who had given up America for Obama. Only Trump could and only Trump wanted to save America for We the People and for those who will live long after us.

I continually thank Mr. Trump for running. He is a tough, brave man. Historians will say that he had lots of other things that he could have done with his time.

Great things sometimes come in email

Like you, I have received many things in email without attribution. Many, I wanted to believe so much that I passed them on without checking anywhere. I do not particularly like Snopes as it almost always, from my observations, gives the liberal socialist progressive viewpoint like as if a Democrat activist did the analysis, and wrote an anti-American thesis about it.

Rarely does Snopes call anything correctly. Things that are very believable are declared false without what I consider a proper explanation. Nonetheless, I use Snopes myself as a conservative Democrat to see what the other side thinks about given matters. Don't count on Snopes for the unbiased truth. In fact, most fact checkers are getting checks from various wings of the Democratic Party for being fine foot soldiers.

By the way, in addition to email, I also found a written piece on <https://reclaimourrepublic.wordpress.com>. The full URL is <https://reclaimourrepublic.wordpress.com/2016/06/02/video-honestly-why-would-anyone-vote-for-trump-press-covers-trump-inaccurately/>

Right on the first page of this URL is a picture of this beautiful lady shown for your review on the next page. Just looking at this wonderful picture (seen in color on the Kindle version of this book), would be enough for me to reevaluate my posture on Donald Trump if I did not already know how great he was about to be. And, unlike Obama, a faux great, Trump has proven himself as a great man while on his mission to save America.

My whole extended family and I love the fact that Donald Trump is now our President and we wish him and his family well in this most arduous task. I thank Fred L. Anderson for this great email. It was proudly signed Fred L. Anderson. I could not find it on Snopes, which I believe means that Snopes could find no material to denigrate the piece or the author.

The email is printed on the next pages as received with emphasis asterisks removed. The paragraph immediately below, preceding the email, is from a retired lawyer. I adjusted it very slightly to mute a few words that might first appear objectionable. The essence of what was said is still in the paragraph on the next page.

VIDEO Honestly, Why Would Anyone Vote For Trump? – Press covers Trump inaccurately

Posted on June 2, 2016

Believing fervently that anyone in the phone book would make a better president than either the disgusting creature whom the Dems will nominate or the guy who many liberals think is a narcissistic empty suit, I am trying to see Trump in a better light than that cast by the parrots collectively comprising the national media. I found the attached piece, sent to me by a Naples, Florida, retiree, encouraging in that regard, and would commend it to your attention.

Here is the rest of the Email/ Article:

Honestly, Why you should vote for Trump? – Press covers Trump inaccurately

A few days ago someone -- I don't know who, asked this question ... and a mutual friend (knowing I am a Trump supporter), tagged me and asked me to answer the question. Here is my reply from during the heat of the campaign.

[This is an answer to “Why Trump Got Elected!”]

I am a Trump supporter for several reasons. I believe that our country is at a critical tipping point and we don't have another presidential term to figure this out.

Health care costs are out of control, our labor participation rate is at a 50-year low, we have no borders, jobs are leaving by the thousands, the debt service on our national debt is nearing a point where we simply cannot pay it.

The average person hasn't had an increase in pay in 12 years. Over half the black men in our country are out of work. We are more divided than I can ever remember and I'm over 60 years old. We are at the brink of losing our country.

On top of that we spend money we don't have fighting wars we shouldn't be in, and cannot win. We pay over a hundred other countries billions of dollars a year and our military are the policemen for the world. We must fix this mess ASAP.

Now, before I give you my reasons, I need to share my perspective. I am an evangelical Christian. but I don't believe it is the role of government to legislate morality. I am a service connected disabled veteran having served in the US Army as a paratrooper.

I started my second career as an auto mechanic and worked my way up to owning 12 auto repair franchises. I then sold them and began a new career in real estate, building my own company to over 150 agents.

Then in 2003 I invented a technology that put me on CNN and I began selling that software to real estate agents internationally. I've written 14 books, thousands of trade articles and have trained over 1,000,000 real estate agents in specific professional skills.

I've employed over a thousand people during that time, and until a month ago have been a registered democrat. Okay, now that you know where I'm coming from, here are my reasons:

First, his resume. Of everyone running for president, Trump is the only one who has ever employed anyone. He is the only one who has any experience in international trade. He is the only one who understands the impact of our tax laws and government regulation on companies and jobs.

Trump has made a fortune turning around failed companies. He's worked complicated deals all over the world, negotiating with governments, labor unions, and international financiers. These skills are not learned overnight and we don't have time for another life-long politician and attorney to get up to speed.

Second is his character. He is tough as nails. His children are pretty awesome. You can tell a lot about somebody by their kids. He is brutally honest as opposed to being politically correct. His employees and his ex-employees have nothing but praise for him. Even his ex-wives have nothing bad to say about him. Check it out.

Third is his success. He has built hundreds of successful businesses. One of his companies declared bankruptcy (chapter 11 or reorganization) four separate times before ultimately saving the company. All creditors were paid, and jobs were saved. Bottom line is he is just a very good businessman.

Fourth is that he is a great negotiator. In fact, he wrote the book on negotiation -- The Art of the Deal, an international best-seller. If we are to save this country, we need someone who can work with people of differing opinions. Congress is grid locked. We need to work new trade agreements with other nations. We need to renegotiate treaties.

Fifth, Trump is a nationalist and not a globalist. He believes that our country comes first. We need to enforce our borders and the rule of law. He believes it is not our job to defend the whole world. He believes that if we do help countries with their defense, we should be paid for it.

Sixth, he has great instincts. He predicted the rise of Osama bin Laden. He predicted a terror attack on a major US city. He opposed the war in Iraq although every other candidate, but Bernie Sanders was in favor of the war. He opposed it because it would destabilize the Middle East. He got out of the gaming industry before it crashed. Great instincts.

Seventh, he is a natural leader. Even those who don't like him are following his lead. He has single-handedly set the agenda for this election cycle. He is respected internationally as well as in our nation. He oozes leadership.

Eighth, he is a great communicator and persuader. He is a master at using the media to advance his narrative. He totally understands the media. He built the most successful reality show in the history of television. These are skills he will need if he is to turn this country around.

Ninth, I have studied him. I read his first book in 1987 and realized he was a brilliant businessman. I've watched hundreds of hours of speeches, media interviews, read thousands of articles about him, several of his books, and studied his successes and his failures. He is the real deal. I challenge anyone to study him and not support him.

Finally, I have to look at what motivates him. Most politicians are motivated by money and/or power. Trump already has both. He has a history of being a patriot, from his military high school, to now. He has a huge ego, like every other candidate running. The difference is he is honest about his.

I think he sees our nation at a critical place and he knows that he has the unique skill set to fix the problems. If he does, he will go down in history as being one of the greatest presidents ever.

If you understand him, you know that his legacy is important to him (his name on all his buildings and companies). I even believe he is funding his own campaign, so he won't owe favors or loyalties to special interests. When you evaluate his motivations, you can't help but admire him.

I remembered one more reason. Everyone is about to blow a gasket over him. The establishment Republican Party hates him and has actually been actively trying to take down their own front runner. The establishment Democrat Party hates him because they know he will crush Hillary in the election, and the establishment media hates him because he totally controls the news cycle and they cannot control him. Even the donor class hates him because he cannot be bought. If all these people who I cannot stand, hate him, that only makes me love him more.

You know who loves him? The regular people in this country. The ones who work their asses off every day and haven't had a pay raise in over a decade. The ones who pay the taxes and watch as their jobs get shipped overseas or across the border. The ones who see their property values going down because corrupt Big Banking blew up the housing market. The ones whose retirement is in jeopardy because social security has been raided and their 401Ks have been decimated by corrupt Wall Street.

Think about this: We've had politicians running our country for way too many years and look at the results. Isn't it time we give a business person the opportunity to show the way a country should be run.....like a business, because that's what our country is!*

Chapter 13 Donald Trump 45th US President—RNC Speech

Donald Trump at his absolute best!

Donald Trump showed energy and stamina and a definite love for addressing large crowds during his long, arduous and totally successful campaign for the presidency. The people loved him and he loved the people. That's "Why Trump Got Elected!"

If the coverage at his rallies by the corrupt press had been fair, all of America would have been as impressed as these typical supporters:

MrVegiita: You can hear the Power of Americans uniting behind Trump. Awesome coverage

The Frugal Gamer: I was there it was amazing!

Daniel Bertola: Hearing fellow Americans yelling U-S-A, U-S-A!!!! So powerful. Gives me chills.

BlueGrassFan: This is why Trump is going to win by a landslide.

Peter Spiderman: Wow! the crowd was awesome...full of energy. Money can't buy support. Trump is genuine. He just came at the right time, at the right moment.

Društveni Dokaz: I'm not American (at least not yet), but I would really like to see Donald Trump as the POTUS.

Jason Vylášek: My God!!!!!! Clinton has like 7 people sitting in chairs drinking tea at her rallies. This is a brutal beat down. She's had it long coming!

ElectricJohnny: This isn't a one off. Trump fills stadiums every day. This is a revolution.

Arthur Trella: Nice crowd. So glad trump won big time!

Zirasayers: Trump rallies are like Rock Concerts!! Donald Trump is truly amazing. He flies all over the country to bring Americans together again and usually does 1 rally a day if not 2 rallies. Unlike Hillary Clinton who is almost never seen in public, continuously cancels her events probably due to her failing health, and only wants to divide everyone up by race and gender. Not to mention her endless list of scandals over her 30 year of politics.

That's "Why God helped Trump get elected!"

The following Remarks at the RNC were transcribed as prepared for delivery according to a draft obtained by POLITICO Thursday July 21 afternoon.

Friends, delegates and fellow Americans: I humbly and gratefully accept your nomination for the presidency of the United States.

Together, we will lead our party back to the White House, and we will lead our country back to safety, prosperity, and peace. We will be a country of generosity and warmth. But we will also be a country of law and order.

Our Convention occurs at a moment of crisis for our nation. The attacks on our police, and the terrorism in our cities, threaten our very way of life. Any politician who does not grasp this danger is not fit to lead our country.

Americans watching this address tonight have seen the recent images of violence in our streets and the chaos in our communities. Many have witnessed this violence personally, some have even been its victims.

I have a message for all of you: the crime and violence that today afflicts our nation will soon come to an end. Beginning on January 20th 2017, safety will be restored.

The most basic duty of government is to defend the lives of its own citizens. Any government that fails to do so is a government unworthy to lead.

It is finally time for a straightforward assessment of the state of our nation.

I will present the facts plainly and honestly. We cannot afford to be so politically correct anymore.

So, if you want to hear the corporate spin, the carefully-crafted lies, and the media myths the Democrats are holding their convention next week.

But here, at our convention, there will be no lies. We will honor the American people with the truth, and nothing else.

Decades of progress made in bringing down crime are now being reversed by this Administration's rollback of criminal enforcement.

Homicides last year increased by 17% in America's fifty largest cities. That's the largest increase in 25 years. In our nation's capital, killings have risen by 50 percent. They are up nearly 60% in nearby Baltimore.

In the President's hometown of Chicago, more than 2,000 have been the victims of shootings this year alone. And more than 3,600 have been killed in the Chicago area since he took office.

The number of police officers killed in the line of duty has risen by almost 50% compared to this point last year. Nearly 180,000 illegal immigrants with criminal records, ordered deported from our country, are tonight roaming free to threaten peaceful citizens.

The number of new illegal immigrant families who have crossed the border so far this year already exceeds the entire total from 2015. They are being released by the tens of thousands into our communities with no regard for the impact on public safety or resources.

One such border-crosser was released and made his way to Nebraska. There, he ended the life of an innocent young girl named Sarah Root. She was 21 years-old, and was killed the day after graduating from college with a 4.0 Grade Point Average. Her killer was then released a second time, and he is now a fugitive from the law.

I've met Sarah's beautiful family. But to this Administration, their amazing daughter was just one more American life that wasn't worth protecting. One more child to sacrifice on the altar of open borders. What about our economy?

Again, I will tell you the plain facts that have been edited out of your nightly news and your morning newspaper: Nearly Four in 10 African-American children are living in poverty, while 58% of African American youth are not employed. 2 million more Latinos are in poverty today than when the President took his oath of office less than eight years ago. Another 14 million people have left the workforce entirely.

Household incomes are down more than $4,000 since the year 2000. Our manufacturing trade deficit has reached an all-time high – nearly $800 billion in a single year. The budget is no better.

President Obama has doubled our national debt to more than $19 trillion, and growing. Yet, what do we have to show for it? Our roads and bridges are falling apart, our airports are in Third World condition, and forty-three million Americans are on food stamps.

Now let us consider the state of affairs abroad.

Not only have our citizens endured domestic disaster, but they have lived through one international humiliation after another. We all remember the images of our sailors being forced to their knees by their Iranian captors at gunpoint.

This was just prior to the signing of the Iran deal, which gave back to Iran $150 billion and gave us nothing – it will go down in history as one of the worst deals ever made. Another humiliation came when president Obama drew a red line in Syria – and the whole world knew it meant nothing.

In Libya, our consulate – the symbol of American prestige around the globe – was brought down in flames. America is far less safe – and the world is far less stable – than when Obama made the decision to put Hillary Clinton in charge of America’s foreign policy.

I am certain it is a decision he truly regrets. Her bad instincts and her bad judgment – something pointed out by Bernie Sanders – are what caused the disasters unfolding today. Let’s review the record. In 2009, pre-Hillary, ISIS was not even on the map.

Libya was cooperating. Egypt was peaceful. Iraq was seeing a reduction in violence. Iran was being choked by sanctions. Syria was under control. After four years of Hillary Clinton, what do we have? ISIS has spread across the region, and the world. Libya is in ruins, and our Ambassador and his staff were left helpless to die at the hands of savage killers. Egypt was turned over to the radical Muslim brotherhood, forcing the military to retake control. Iraq is in chaos.

Iran is on the path to nuclear weapons. Syria is engulfed in a civil war and a refugee crisis that now threatens the West. After fifteen years of wars in the Middle East, after trillions of dollars spent and thousands of lives lost, the situation is worse than it has ever been before.

This is the legacy of Hillary Clinton: death, destruction and weakness.

But Hillary Clinton’s legacy does not have to be America’s legacy. The problems we face now – poverty and violence at home, war and destruction abroad – will last only as long as we continue relying on the same politicians who created them. A change in leadership is required to change these outcomes. Tonight, I will share with you my plan of action for America.

The most important difference between our plan and that of our opponents, is that our plan will put America First. Americanism, not globalism, will be our credo. As long as we are led by politicians who will not put America First, then we can be assured that other nations will not treat America with respect. This will all change in 2017.

The American People will come first once again. My plan will begin with safety at home – which means safe neighborhoods, secure borders, and protection from terrorism. There can be no prosperity without law and order. On the economy, I will outline reforms to add millions of new jobs and trillions in new wealth that can be used to rebuild America.

A number of these reforms that I will outline tonight will be opposed by some of our nation’s most powerful special interests. That is because these interests have rigged our political and economic system for their exclusive benefit.

Big business, elite media and major donors are lining up behind the campaign of my opponent because they know she will keep our rigged system in place. They are throwing money at her because they have total control over everything she does. She is their puppet, and they pull the strings.

That is why Hillary Clinton’s message is that things will never change. My message is that things have to change – and they have to change right now. Every day I wake up determined to deliver for the people I have met all across this nation that have been neglected, ignored, and abandoned.

I have visited the laid-off factory workers, and the communities crushed by our horrible and unfair trade deals. These are the forgotten men and women of our country. People who work hard but no longer have a voice.

I AM YOUR VOICE.

I have embraced crying mothers who have lost their children because our politicians put their personal agendas before the national good. I have no patience for injustice, no tolerance for government incompetence, no sympathy for leaders who fail their citizens.

When innocent people suffer, because our political system lacks the will, or the courage, or the basic decency to enforce our laws – or worse still, has sold out to some corporate lobbyist for cash – I am not able to look the other way.

And when a Secretary of State illegally stores her emails on a private server, deletes 33,000 of them so the authorities can't see her crime, puts our country at risk, lies about it in every different form and faces no consequence – I know that corruption has reached a level like never before.

When the FBI Director says that the Secretary of State was “extremely careless” and “negligent,” in handling our classified secrets, I also know that these terms are minor compared to what she actually did. They were just used to save her from facing justice for her terrible crimes.

In fact, her single greatest accomplishment may be committing such an egregious crime and getting away with it – especially when others have paid so dearly. When that same Secretary of State rakes in millions of dollars trading access, and favors to special interests and foreign powers I know the time for action has come.

I have joined the political arena so that the powerful can no longer beat up on people that cannot defend themselves. Nobody knows the system better than me, which is why I alone can fix it. I have seen firsthand how the system is rigged against our citizens, just like it was rigged against Bernie Sanders – he never had a chance.

But his supporters will join our movement, because we will fix his biggest issue: trade. Millions of Democrats will join our movement because we are going to fix the system, so it works for all Americans. In this cause, I am proud to have at my side the next Vice President of the United States: Governor Mike Pence of Indiana.

We will bring the same economic success to America that Mike brought to Indiana. He is a man of character and accomplishment. He is the right man for the job. The first task for our new Administration will be to liberate our citizens from the crime and terrorism and lawlessness that threatens their communities.

America was shocked to its core when our police officers in Dallas were brutally executed. In the days after Dallas, we have seen continued threats and violence against our law enforcement officials. Law officers have been shot or killed in recent days in Georgia, Missouri, Wisconsin, Kansas, Michigan and Tennessee.

On Sunday, more police were gunned down in Baton Rouge, Louisiana. Three were killed, and four were badly injured. An attack on law enforcement is an attack on all Americans. I have a message to every last person threatening the peace on our streets and the safety of our police: when I take the oath of office next year, I will restore law and order our country.

I will work with, and appoint, the best prosecutors and law enforcement officials in the country to get the job done. In this race for the White House, I am the Law and Order candidate. The irresponsible rhetoric of our President, who has used the pulpit of the presidency to divide us by race and color, has made America a more dangerous environment for everyone.

This Administration has failed America's inner cities. It's failed them on education. It's failed them on jobs. It's failed them on crime. It's failed them at every level.

When I am President, I will work to ensure that all of our kids are treated equally, and protected equally.

Every action I take, I will ask myself: does this make life better for young Americans in Baltimore, Chicago, Detroit, Ferguson who have as much of a right to live out their dreams as any other child America?

To make life safe in America, we must also address the growing threats we face from outside America: we are going to defeat the barbarians of ISIS. Once again, France is the victim of brutal Islamic terrorism.

Men, women and children viciously mowed down. Lives ruined. Families ripped apart. A nation in mourning.

The damage and devastation that can be inflicted by Islamic radicals has been over and over – at the World Trade Center, at an office party in San Bernardino, at the Boston Marathon, and a military recruiting center in Chattanooga, Tennessee.

Only weeks ago, in Orlando, Florida, 49 wonderful Americans were savagely murdered by an Islamic terrorist. This time, the terrorist targeted our LGBT community. As your President, I will do everything in my power to protect our LGBT citizens from the violence and oppression of a hateful foreign ideology. To protect us from terrorism, we need to focus on three things.

We must have the best intelligence gathering operation in the world. We must abandon the failed policy of nation building and regime change that Hillary Clinton pushed in Iraq, Libya, Egypt and Syria. Instead, we must work with all of our allies who share our goal of destroying ISIS and stamping out Islamic terror.

This includes working with our greatest ally in the region, the State of Israel. Lastly, we must immediately suspend immigration from any nation that has been compromised by terrorism until such time as proven vetting mechanisms have been put in place.

My opponent has called for a radical 550% increase in Syrian refugees on top of existing massive refugee flows coming into our country under President Obama. She proposes this despite the fact that there's no way to screen these refugees in order to find out who they are or where they come from. I only want to admit individuals into our country who will support our values and love our people.

Anyone who endorses violence, hatred or oppression is not welcome in our country and never will be.

Decades of record immigration have produced lower wages and higher unemployment for our citizens, especially for African-American and Latino workers. We are going to have an immigration system that works, but one that works for the American people.

On Monday, we heard from three parents whose children were killed by illegal immigrants Mary Ann Mendoza, Sabine Durden, and Jamiel Shaw. They are just three brave representatives of many thousands. Of all my travels in this country, nothing has affected me more deeply than the time I have spent with the mothers and fathers who have lost their children to violence spilling across our border.

These families have no special interests to represent them. There are no demonstrators to protest on their behalf. My opponent will never meet with them, or share in their pain. Instead, my opponent wants Sanctuary Cities. But where was sanctuary for Kate Steinle? Where was sanctuary for the children of Mary Ann, Sabine and Jamiel? Where was sanctuary for all the other Americans who have been so brutally murdered, and who have suffered so horribly?

These wounded American families have been alone. But they are alone no longer. Tonight, this candidate and this whole nation stand in their corner to support them, to send them our love, and to pledge in their honor that we will save countless more families from suffering the same awful fate.

We are going to build a great border wall to stop illegal immigration, to stop the gangs and the violence, and to stop the drugs from pouring into our communities. I have been honored to receive the endorsement of America's Border Patrol Agents, and will work directly with them to protect the integrity of our lawful immigration system.

By ending catch-and-release on the border, we will stop the cycle of human smuggling and violence. Illegal border crossings will go down. Peace will be restored. By enforcing the rules for the millions who overstay their visas, our laws will finally receive the respect they deserve.

Tonight, I want every American whose demands for immigration security have been denied – and every politician who has denied them – to listen very closely to the words I am about to say.

On January 21st of 2017, the day after I take the oath of office, Americans will finally wake up in a country where the laws of the United States are enforced. We are going to be considerate and compassionate to everyone.

But my greatest compassion will be for our own struggling citizens. My plan is the exact opposite of the radical and dangerous immigration policy of Hillary Clinton. Americans want relief from uncontrolled immigration. Communities want relief.

Yet Hillary Clinton is proposing mass amnesty, mass immigration, and mass lawlessness. Her plan will overwhelm your schools and hospitals, further reduce your jobs and wages, and make it harder for recent immigrants to escape from poverty.

I have a different vision for our workers. It begins with a new, fair trade policy that protects our jobs and stands up to countries that cheat. It's been a signature message of my campaign from day one, and it will be a signature feature of my presidency from the moment I take the oath of office.

I have made billions of dollars in business making deals – now I'm going to make our country rich again. I am going to turn our bad trade agreements into great ones.

America has lost nearly-one third of its manufacturing jobs since 1997, following the enactment of disastrous trade deals supported by Bill and Hillary Clinton.

Remember, it was Bill Clinton who signed NAFTA, one of the worst economic deals ever made by our country.

Never again.

I am going to bring our jobs back to Ohio and to America – and I am not going to let companies move to other countries, firing their employees along the way, without consequences.

My opponent, on the other hand, has supported virtually every trade agreement that has been destroying our middle class. She supported NAFTA, and she supported China's entrance into the World Trade Organization – another one of her husband's colossal mistakes.

She supported the job killing trade deal with South Korea. She has supported the Trans-Pacific Partnership. The TPP will not only destroy our manufacturing, but it will make America subject to the rulings of foreign governments. I pledge to never sign any trade agreement that hurts our workers, or that diminishes our freedom and independence.

Instead, I will make individual deals with individual countries.

No longer will we enter into these massive deals, with many countries, that are thousands of pages long – and which no one from our country even reads or understands. We are going to enforce all trade violations, including through the use of taxes and tariffs, against any country that cheats.

This includes stopping China's outrageous theft of intellectual property, along with their illegal product dumping, and their devastating currency manipulation. Our horrible trade agreements with China and many others, will be totally renegotiated. That includes renegotiating NAFTA to get a much better deal for America – and we'll walk away if we don't get the deal that we want. We are going to start building and making things again.

Next comes the reform of our tax laws, regulations and energy rules. While Hillary Clinton plans a massive tax increase, I have proposed the largest tax reduction of any candidate who has declared for the presidential race this year – Democrat or Republican. Middle-income Americans will experience profound relief, and taxes will be simplified for everyone.

America is one of the highest-taxed nations in the world. Reducing taxes will cause new companies and new jobs to come roaring back into our country. Then we are going to deal with the issue of regulation, one of the greatest job-killers of them all. Excessive regulation is costing our country as much as $2 trillion a year, and we will end it. We are going to lift the restrictions on the production of American energy. This will produce more than $20 trillion in job creating economic activity over the next four decades.

My opponent, on the other hand, wants to put the great miners and steel workers of our country out of work – that will never happen when I am President. With these new economic policies, trillions of dollars will start flowing into our country.

This new wealth will improve the quality of life for all Americans – We will build the roads, highways, bridges, tunnels, airports, and the railways of tomorrow. This, in turn, will create millions more jobs. We will rescue kids from failing schools by helping their parents send them to a safe school of their choice.

My opponent would rather protect education bureaucrats than serve American children. We will repeal and replace disastrous Obamacare. You will be able to choose your own doctor again. And we will fix TSA at the airports! We will completely rebuild our depleted military, and the countries that we protect, at a massive loss, will be asked to pay their fair share.

We will take care of our great Veterans like they have never been taken care of before.

My opponent dismissed the VA scandal as being not widespread – one more sign of how out of touch she really is. We are going to ask every Department Head in government to provide a list of wasteful spending projects that we can eliminate in my first 100 days. The politicians have talked about it, I'm going to do it. We are also going to appoint justices to the United States Supreme Court who will uphold our laws and our Constitution.

The replacement for Justice Scalia will be a person of similar views and principles. This will be one of the most important issues decided by this election. My opponent wants to essentially abolish the 2nd amendment. I, on the other hand, received the early and strong endorsement of the National Rifle Association and will protect the right of all Americans to keep their families safe.

At this moment, I would like to thank the evangelical community who have been so good to me and so supportive. You have so much to contribute to our politics, yet our laws prevent you from speaking your minds from your own pulpits.

An amendment, pushed by Lyndon Johnson, many years ago, threatens religious institutions with a loss of their tax-exempt status if they openly advocate their political views.

I am going to work very hard to repeal that language and protect free speech for all Americans. We can accomplish these great things, and so much else – all we need to do is start believing in ourselves and in our country again. It is time to show the whole world that America Is Back – bigger, and better and stronger than ever before.

In this journey, I'm so lucky to have at my side my wife Melania and my wonderful children, Don, Ivanka, Eric, Tiffany, and Barron: you will always be my greatest source of pride and joy. My Dad, Fred Trump, was the smartest and hardest working man I ever knew. I wonder sometimes what he'd say if he were here to see this tonight.

It's because of him that I learned, from my youngest age, to respect the dignity of work and the dignity of working people. He was a guy most comfortable in the company of bricklayers, carpenters, and electricians and I have a lot of that in me also. Then there's my mother, Mary. She was strong, but also warm and fair-minded. She was a truly great mother. She was also one of the most honest and charitable people I have ever known, and a great judge of character.

To my sisters Mary Anne and Elizabeth, my brother Robert and my late brother Fred, I will always give you my love you are most special to me. I have loved my life in business.

But now, my sole and exclusive mission is to go to work for our country – to go to work for all of you. It’s time to deliver a victory for the American people. But to do that, we must break free from the petty politics of the past.

America is a nation of believers, dreamers, and strivers that is being led by a group of censors, critics, and cynics.

Remember: all of the people telling you that you can’t have the country you want, are the same people telling you that I wouldn’t be standing here tonight. No longer can we rely on those elites in media, and politics, who will say anything to keep a rigged system in place.

Instead, we must choose to Believe in America. History is watching us now.

It’s waiting to see if we will rise to the occasion, and if we will show the whole world that America is still free and independent and strong.

My opponent asks her supporters to recite a three-word loyalty pledge. It reads: “I’m With Her”. I choose to recite a different pledge.

My pledge reads: “I’M WITH YOU – THE AMERICAN PEOPLE.”

I am your voice.

So to every parent who dreams for their child, and every child who dreams for their future, I say these words to you tonight: I’m With You, and I will fight for you, and I will win for you.

To all Americans tonight, in all our cities and towns, I make this promise:

We Will Make America Strong Again.

We Will Make America Proud Again.

We Will Make America Safe Again.

And We Will Make America Great Again.

THANK YOU.

That says it all folks and that is:
